TALK 3

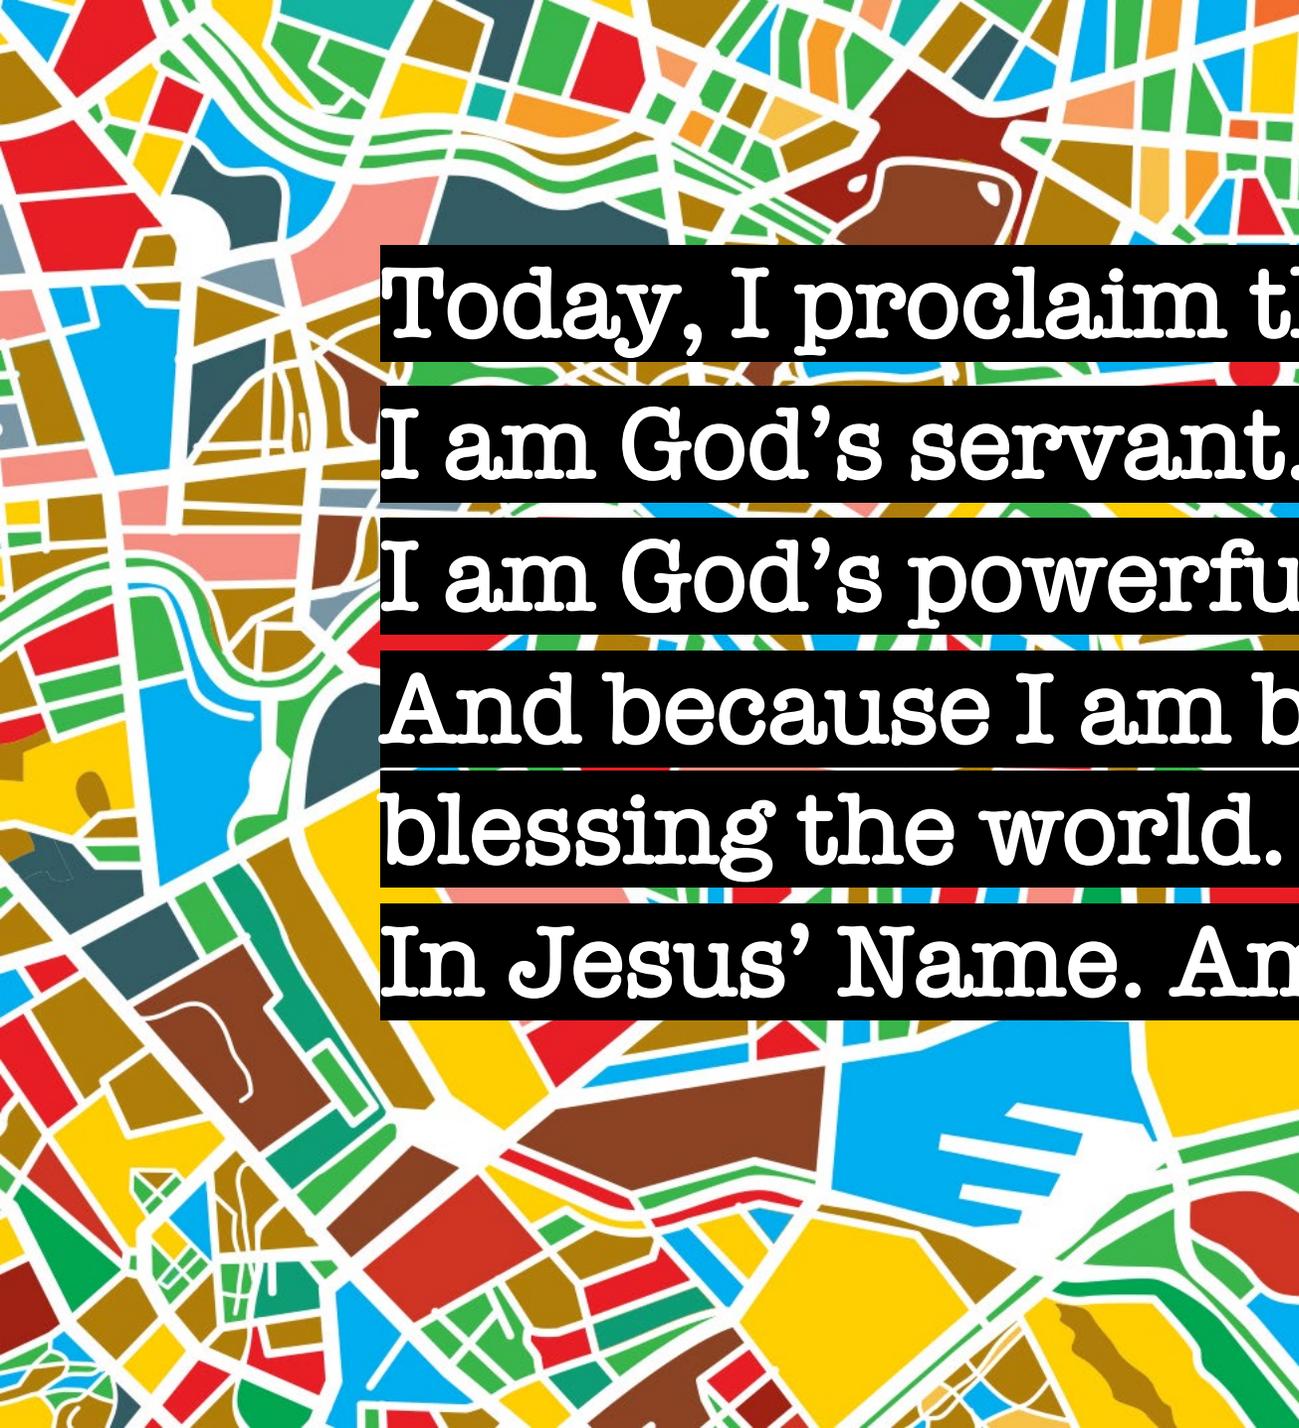

Today, I receive all of God's Love for me.

Today, I open myself to the unbounded, limitless, overflowing abundance of God's universe.

Today, I open myself to God's blessings, healing, and miracles.

Today, I open myself to God's Word so that I become more like Jesus every day.

Today, I proclaim that I am God's beloved.

I am God's servant.

I am God's powerful champion.

And because I am blessed, I am
blessing the world.

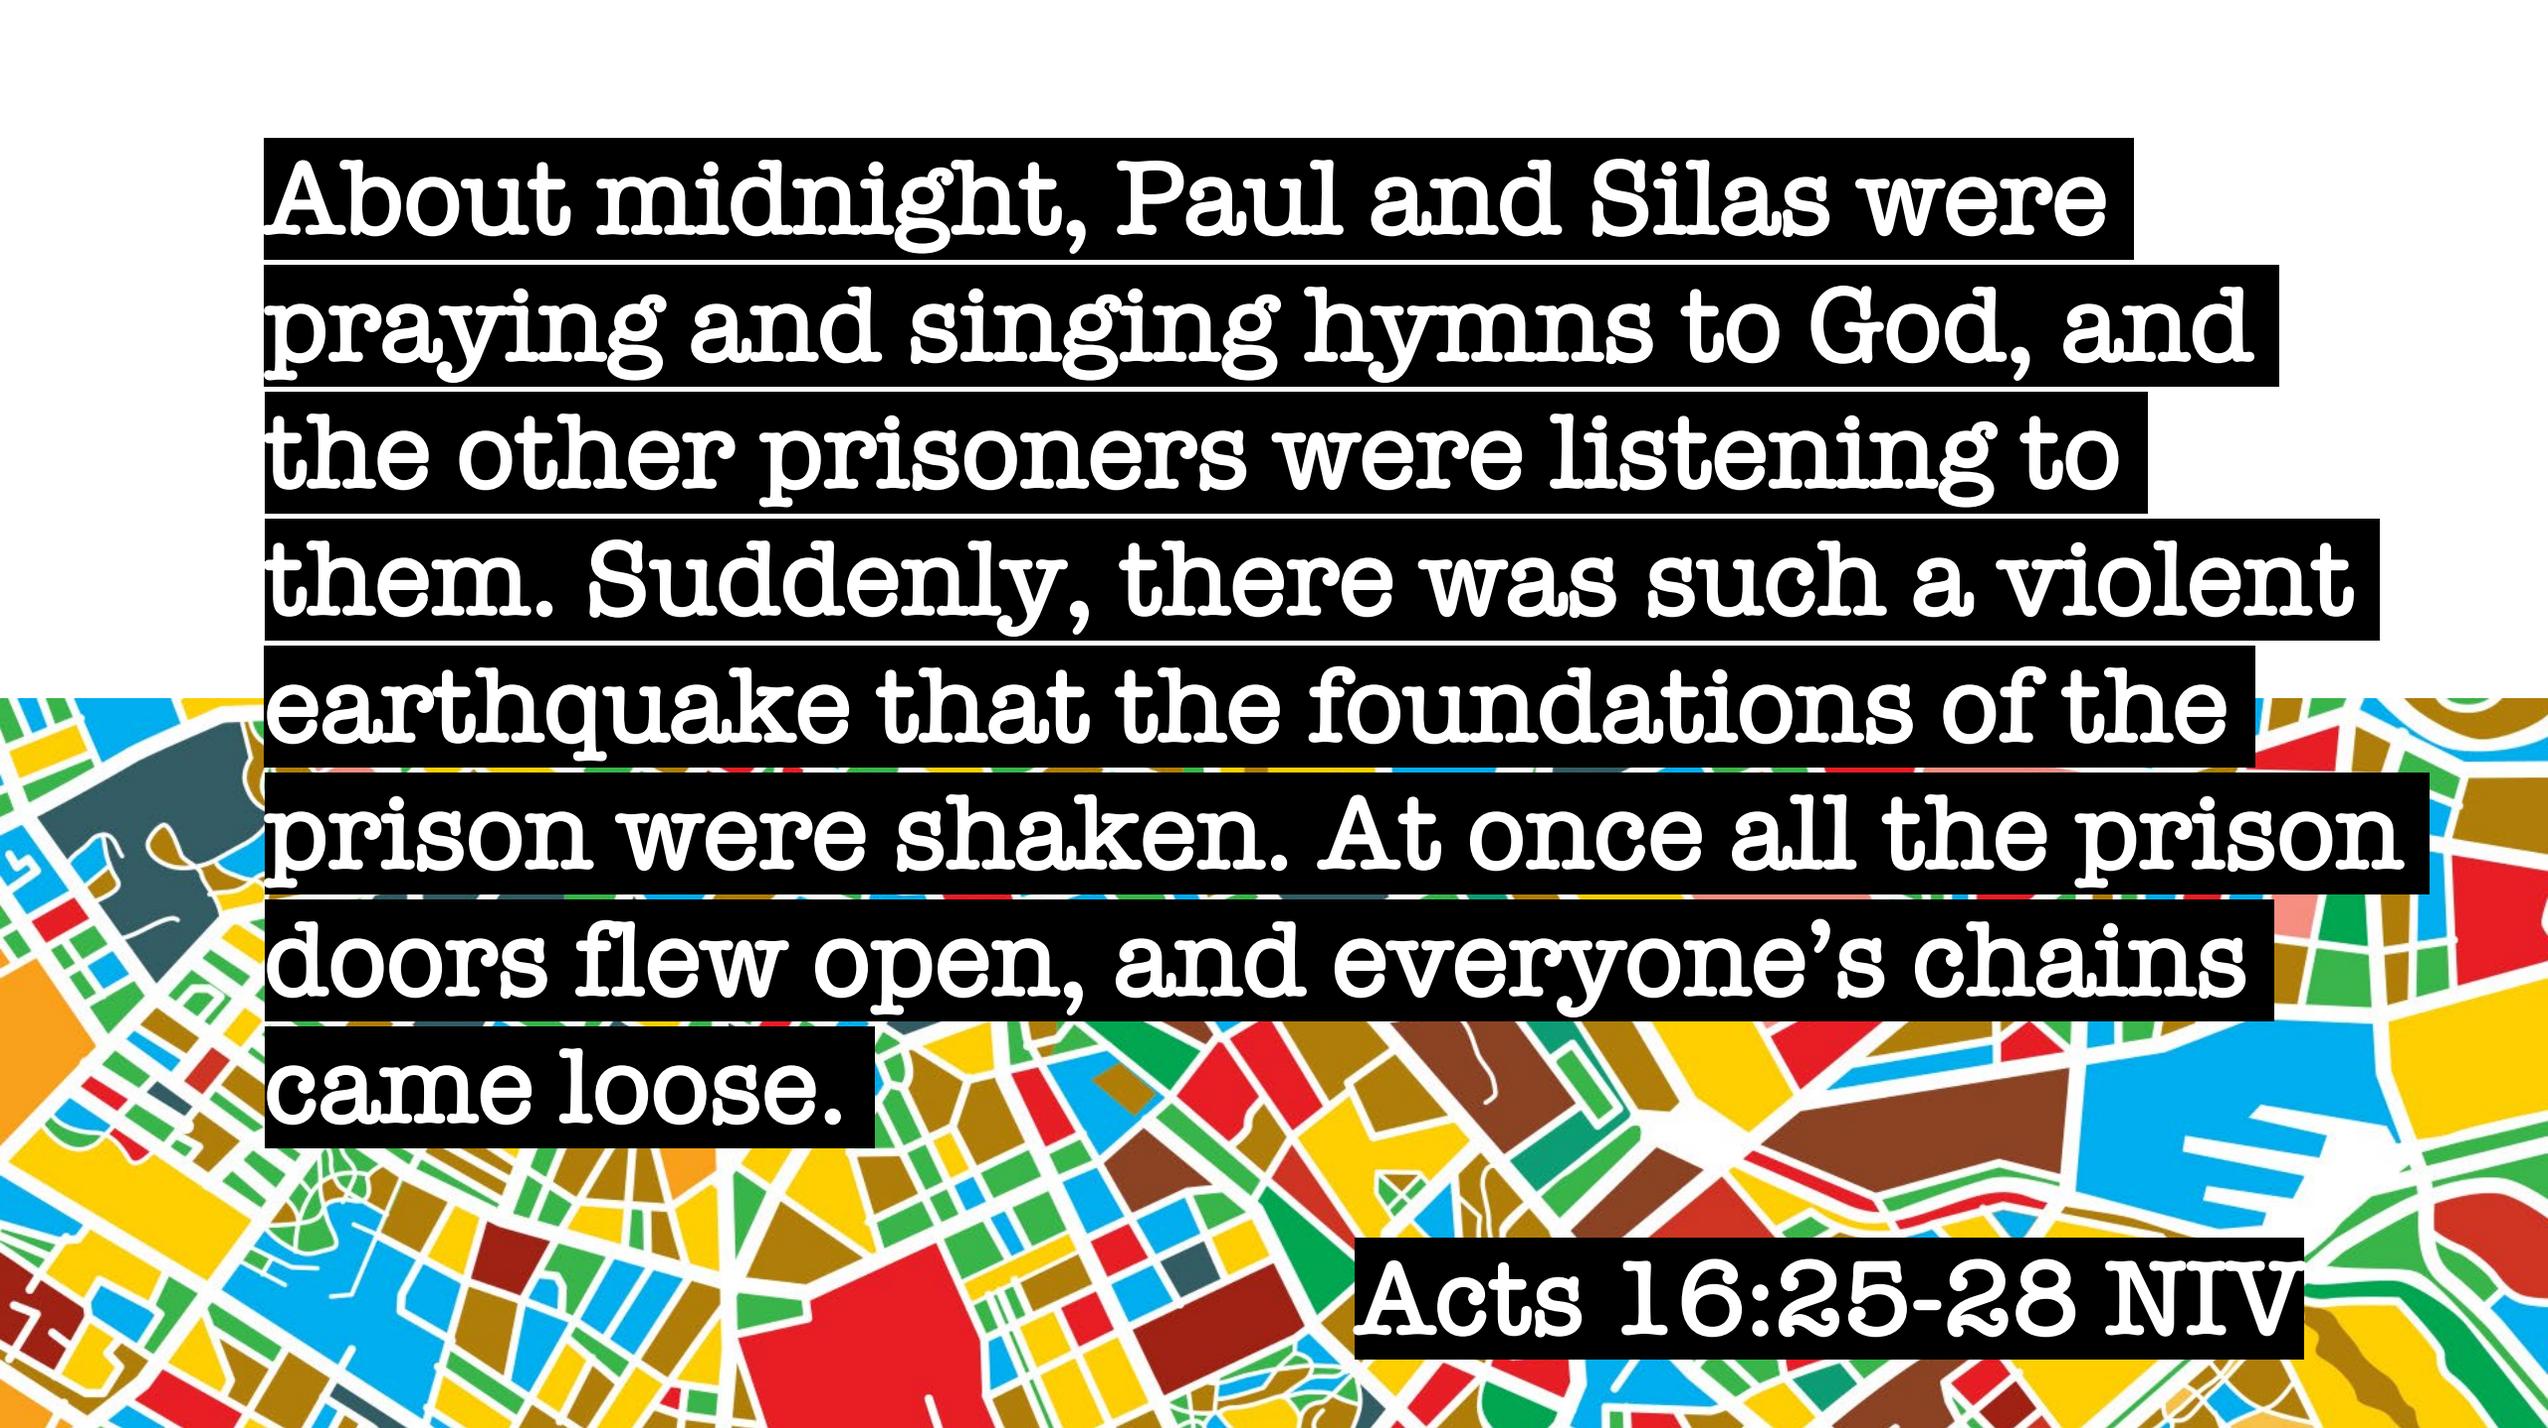

In Jesus' Name. Amen.

*If you change
your perspective,
you change
your entire life.*

About midnight, Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the other prisoners were listening to them. Suddenly, there was such a violent earthquake that the foundations of the prison were shaken. At once all the prison doors flew open, and everyone's chains came loose.

Acts 16:25-28 NIV

The jailer woke up, and when he saw the prison doors open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself because he thought the prisoners had escaped. But Paul shouted, “don’t harm yourself! We are all still here!”

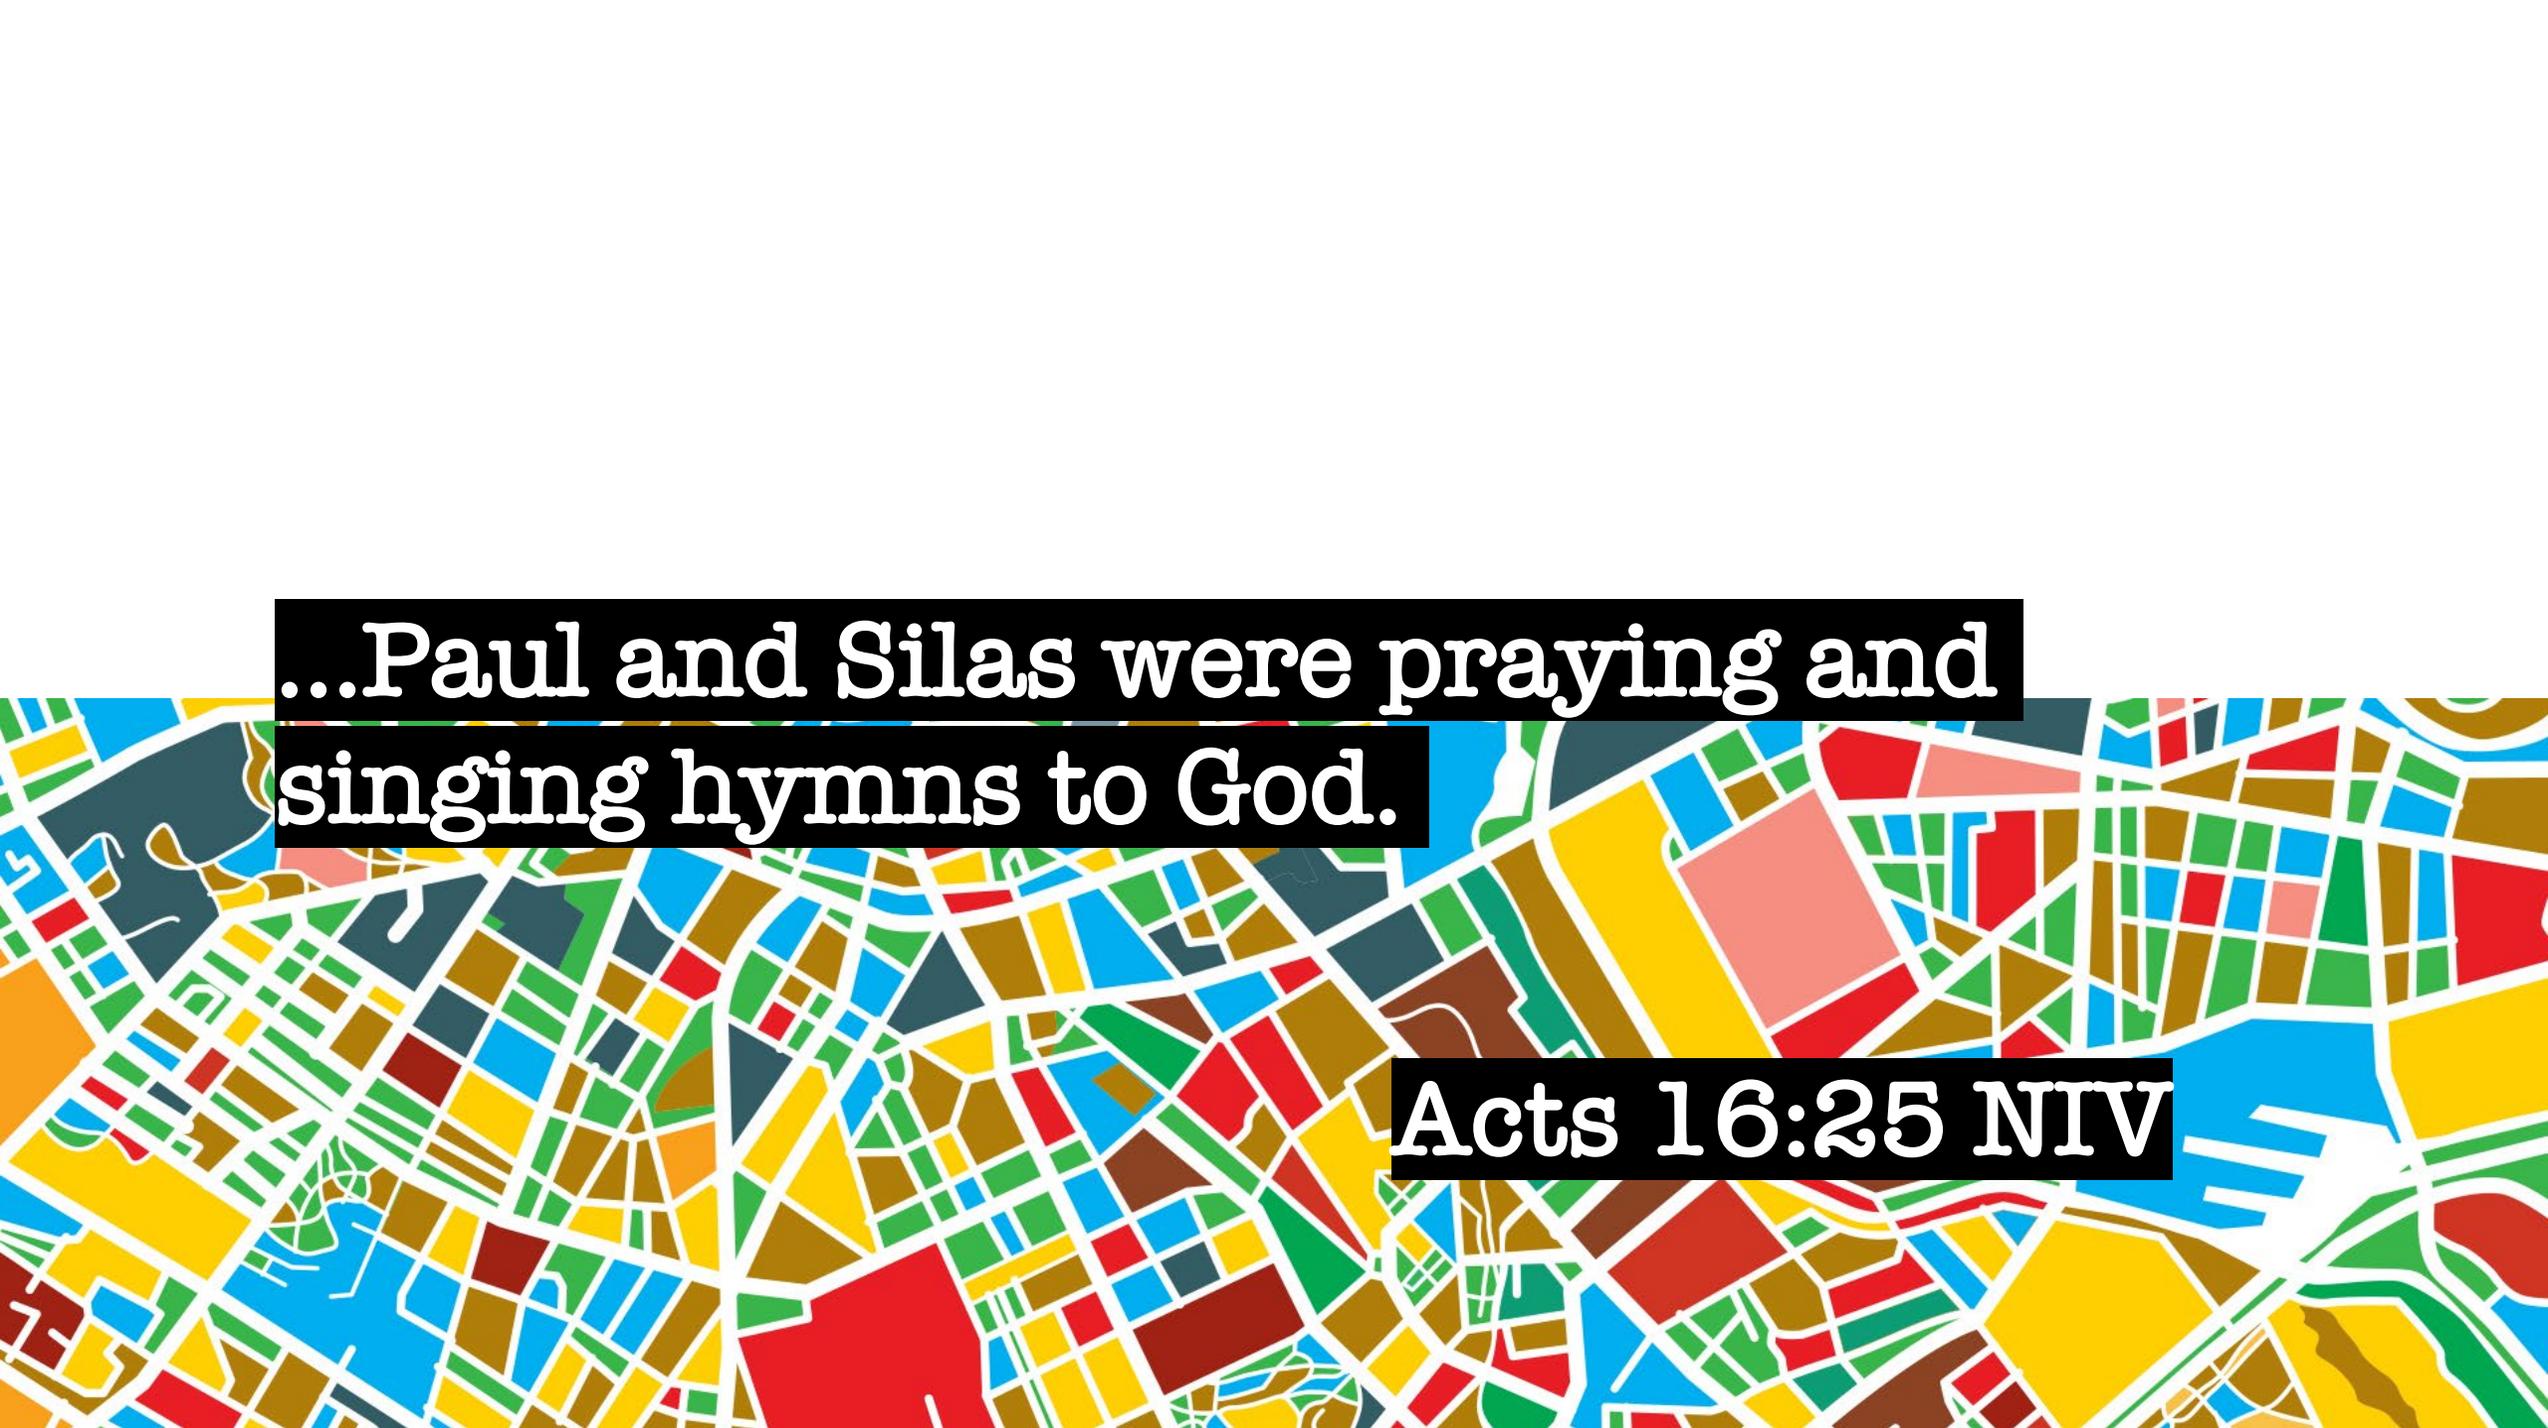

Acts 16:25-28 NIV

Two ways to change your perspective

Praise

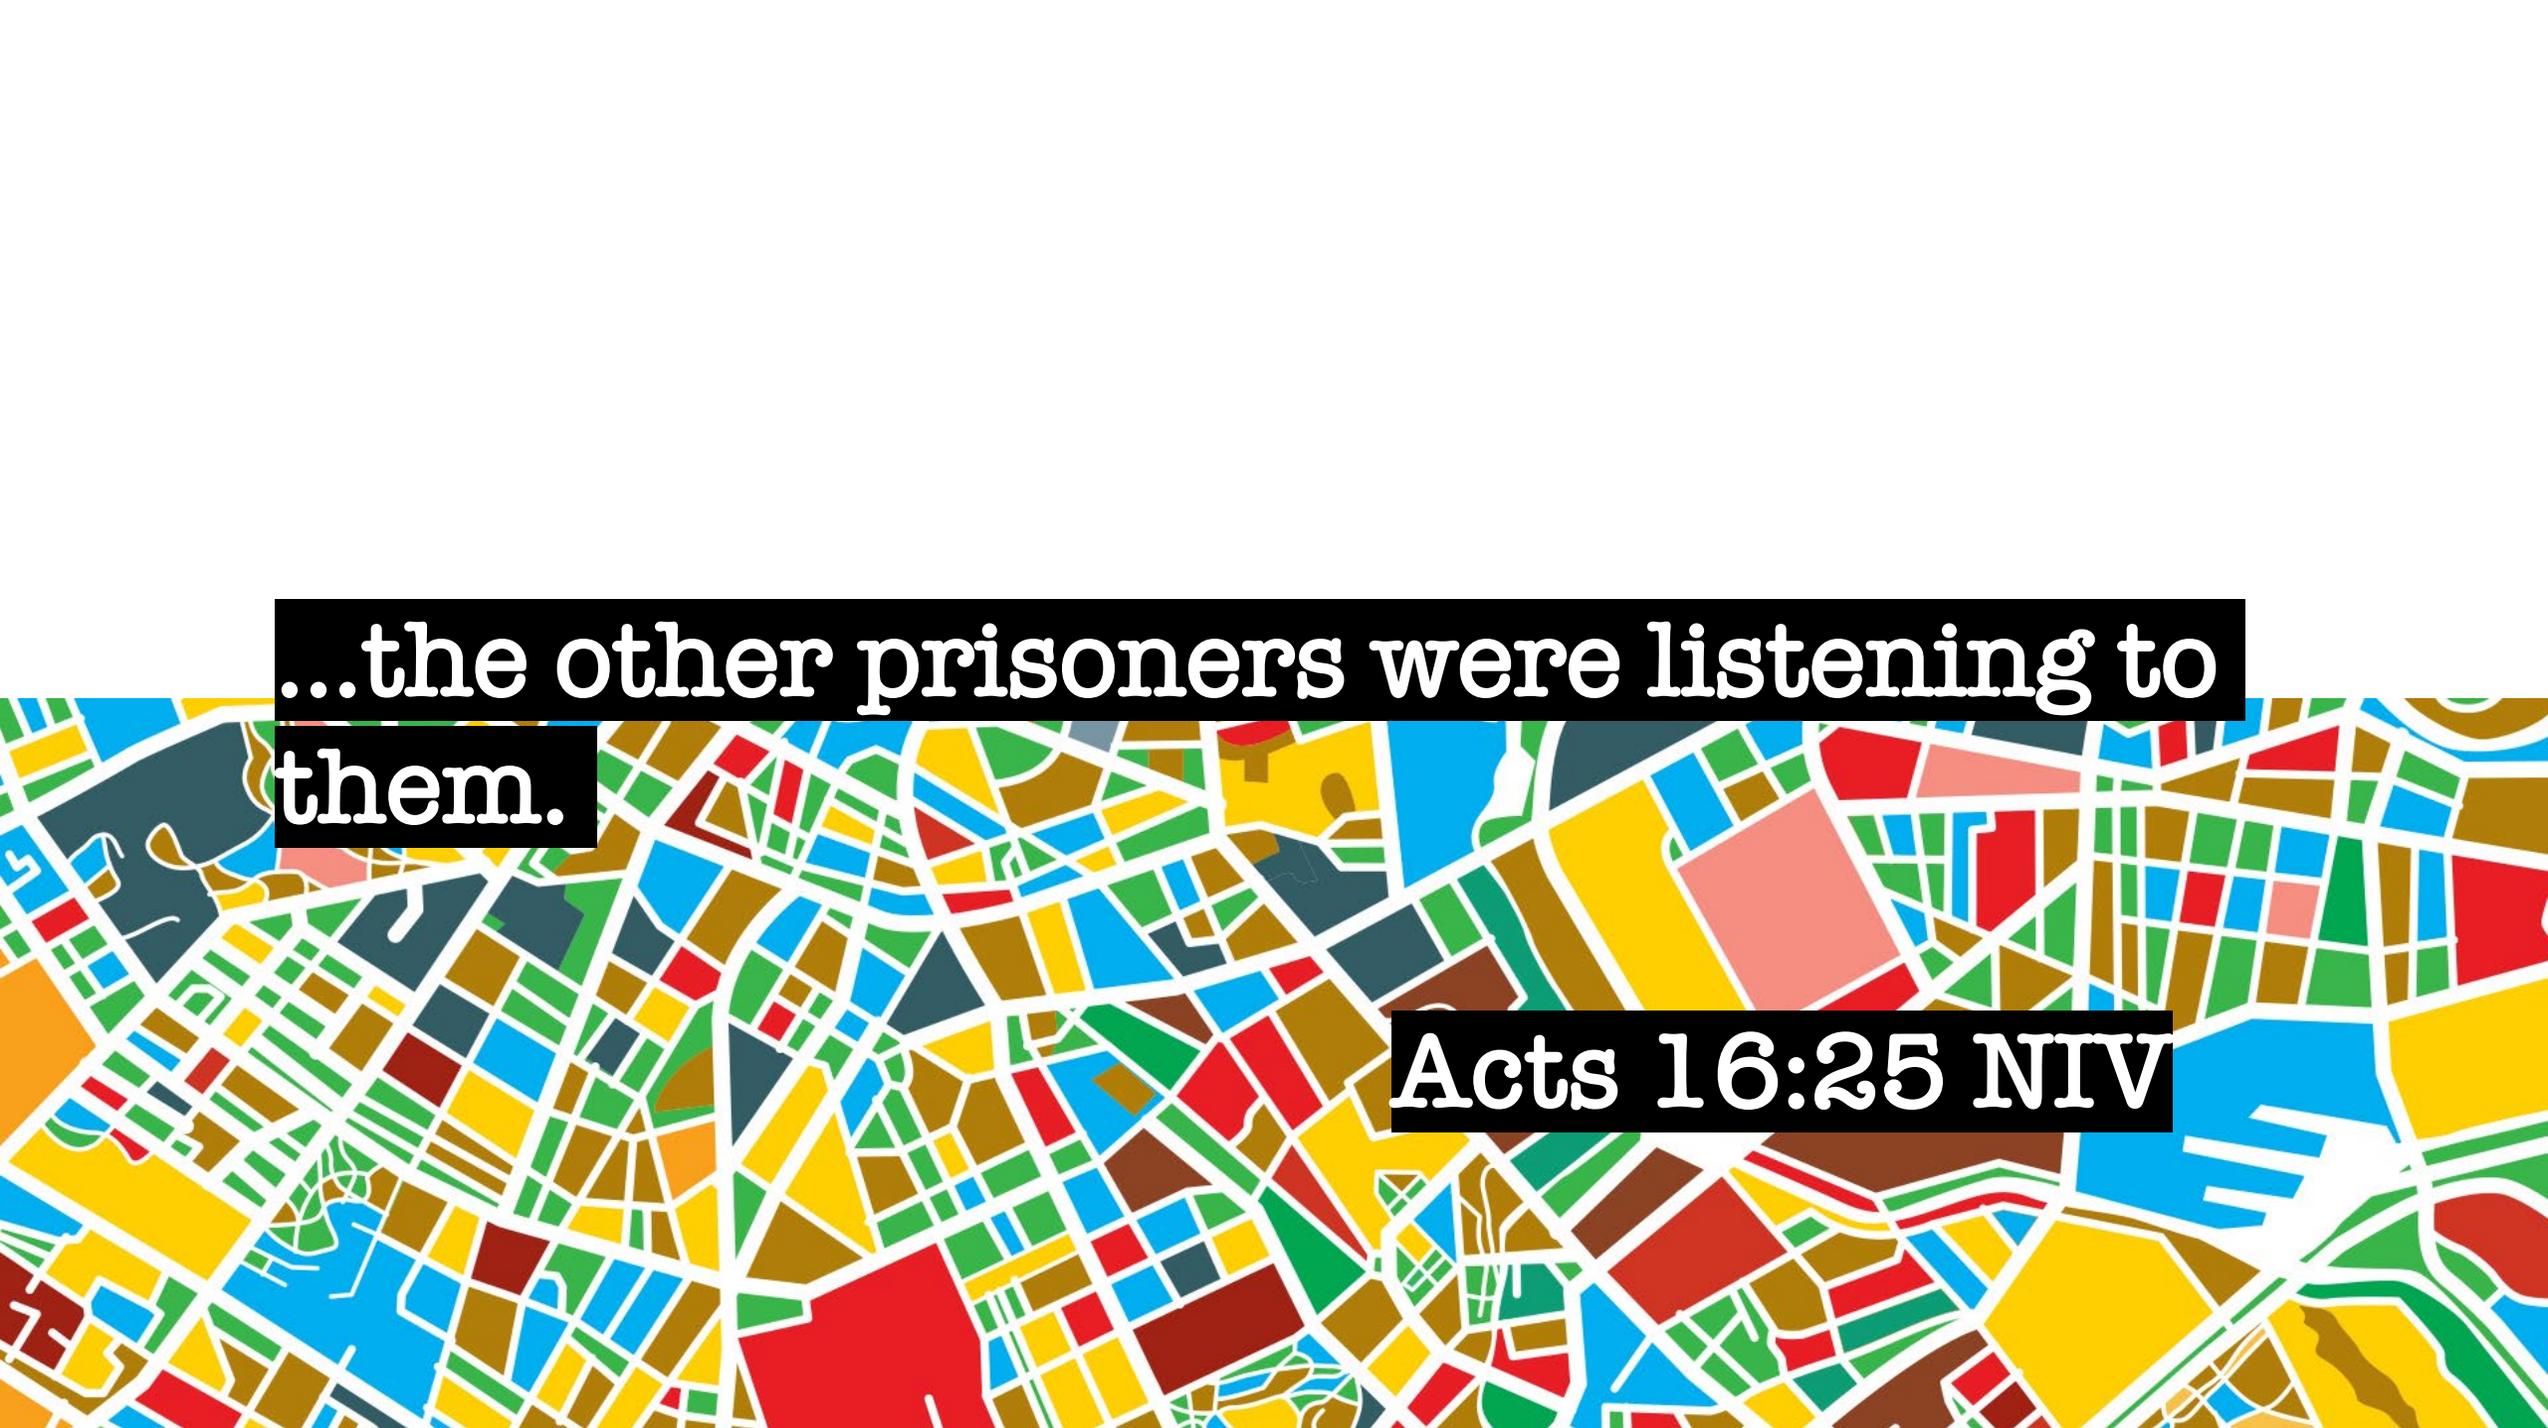

...Paul and Silas were praying and
singing hymns to God.

Acts 16:25 NIV

Praise changes
your perspective.

...the other prisoners were listening to
them.

Acts 16:25 NIV

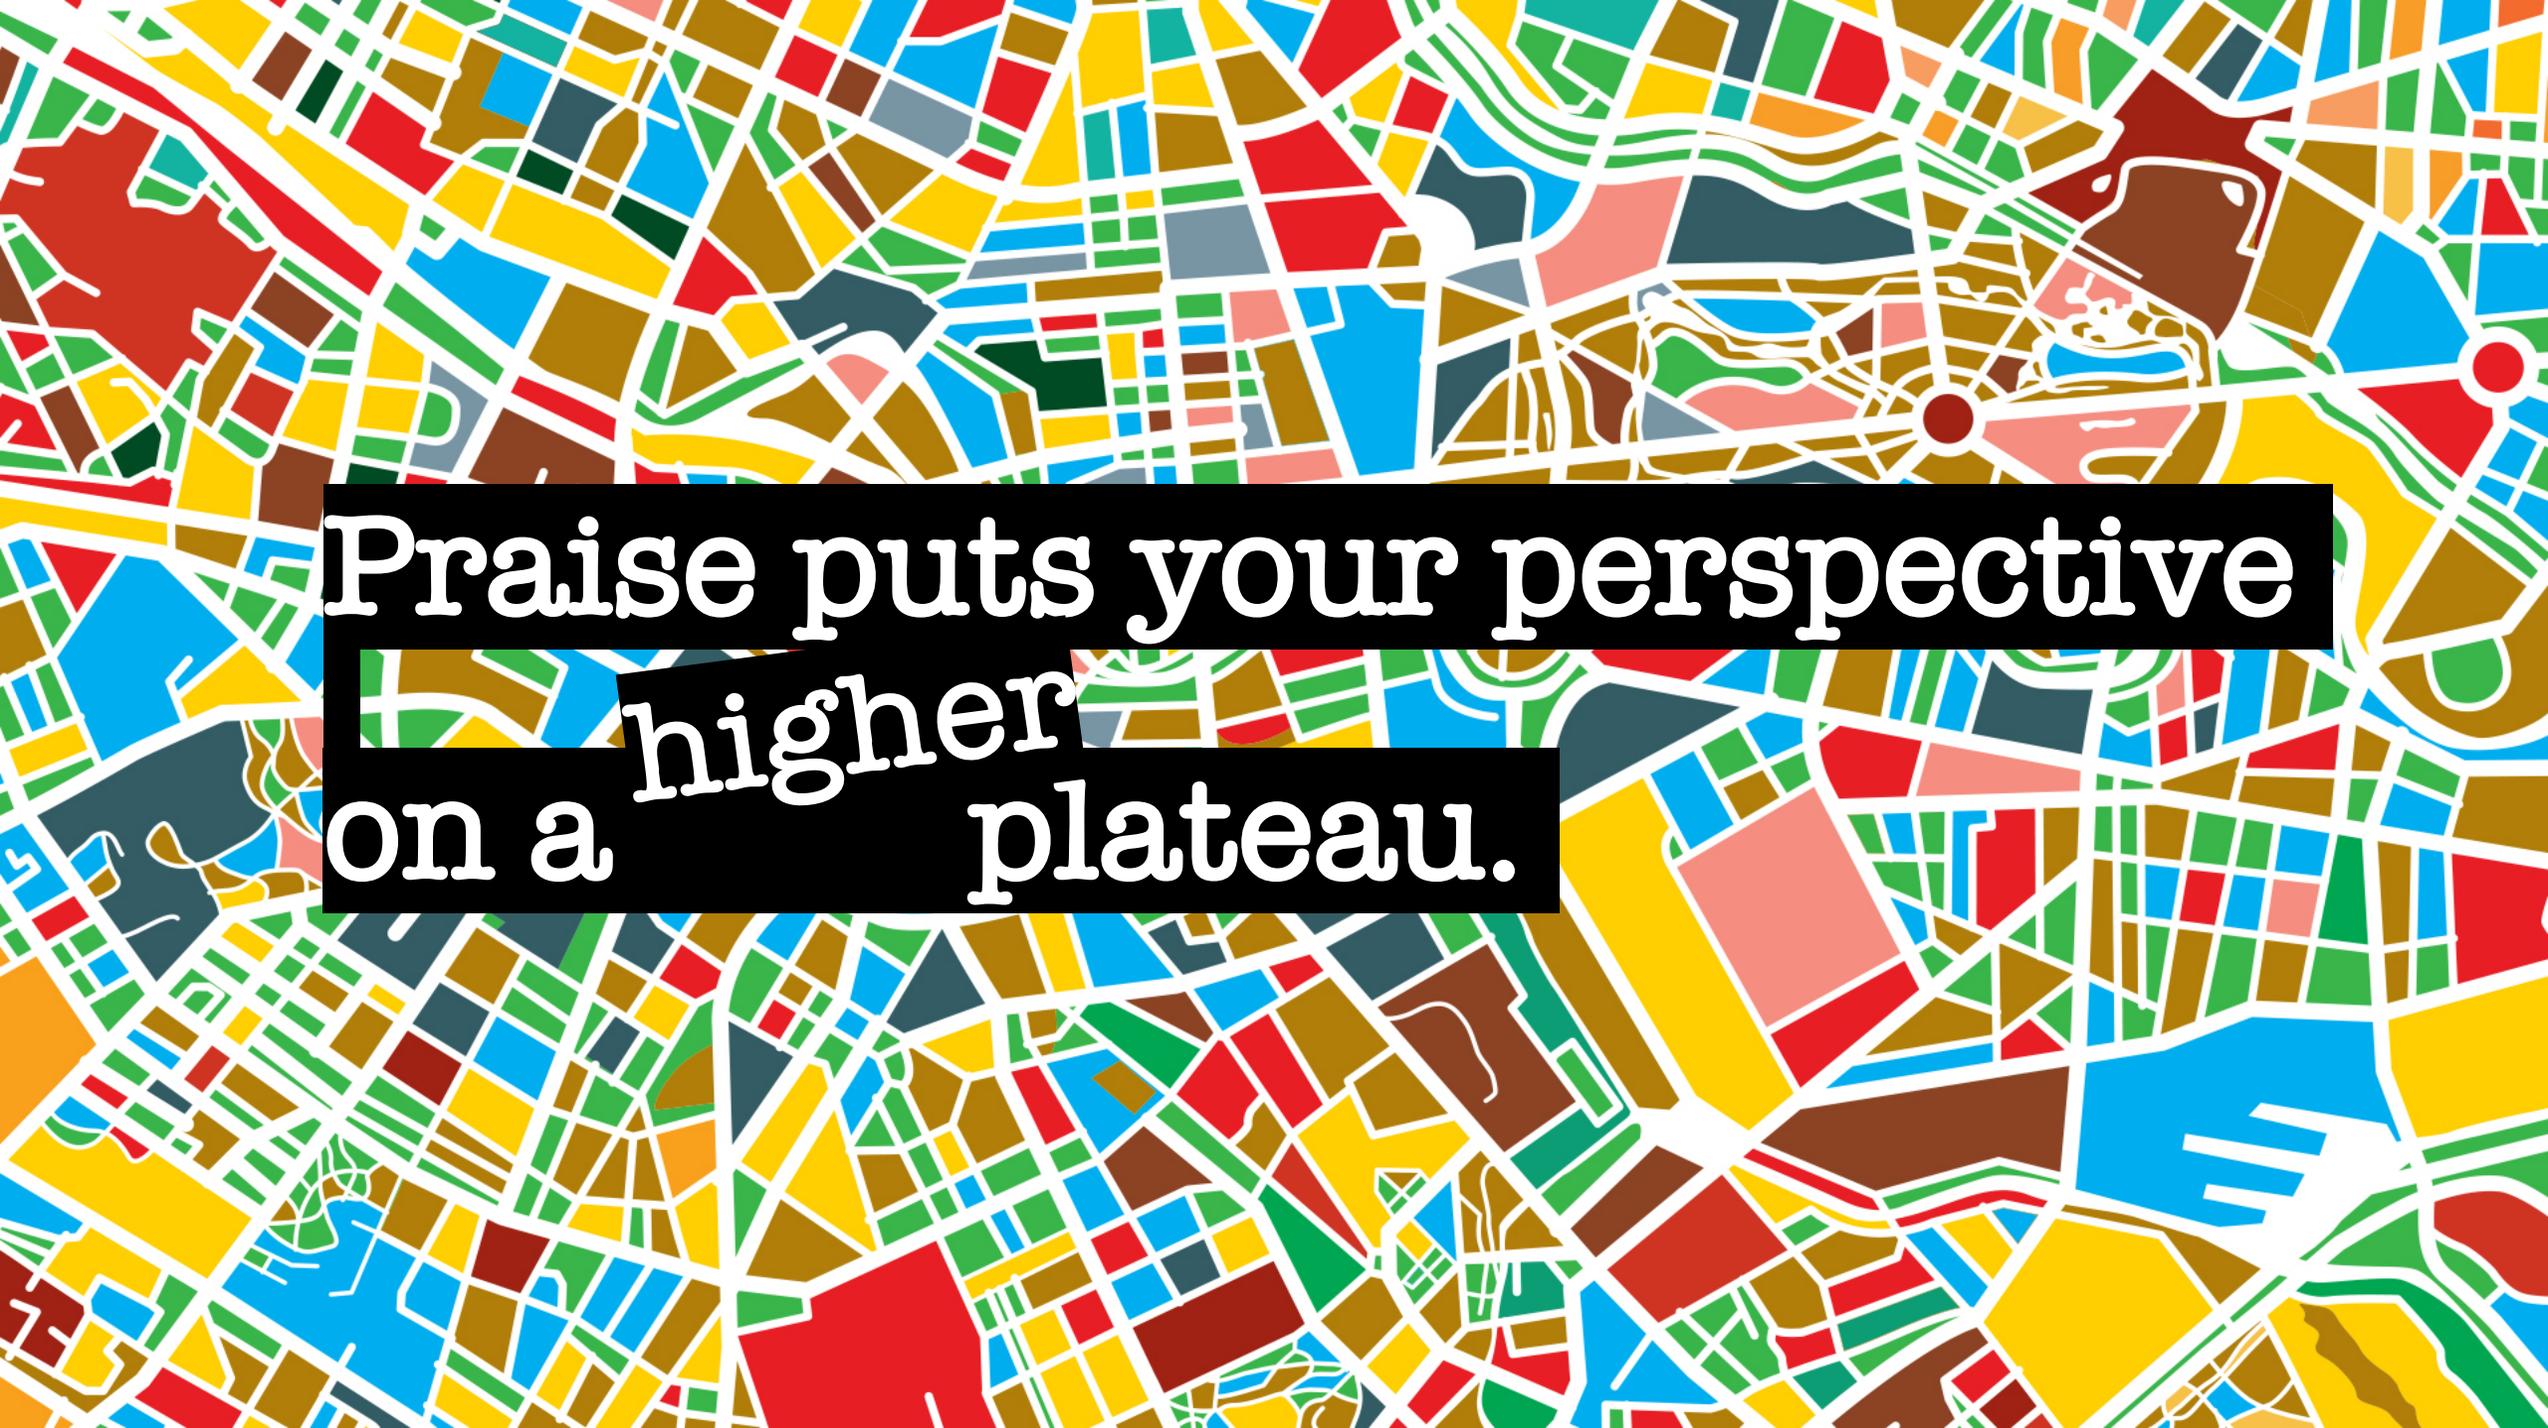

When you praise God

you become a better person.

Praise doesn't change
your situation.

It changes your position.

Praise puts your perspective
on a higher plateau.

Purpose

“Don’t harm yourself! We are all still here!”

Acts 16:28 NIV

When you live a life of purpose,
There's no such thing as a prison.
Everything is a mission.

Purpose changes

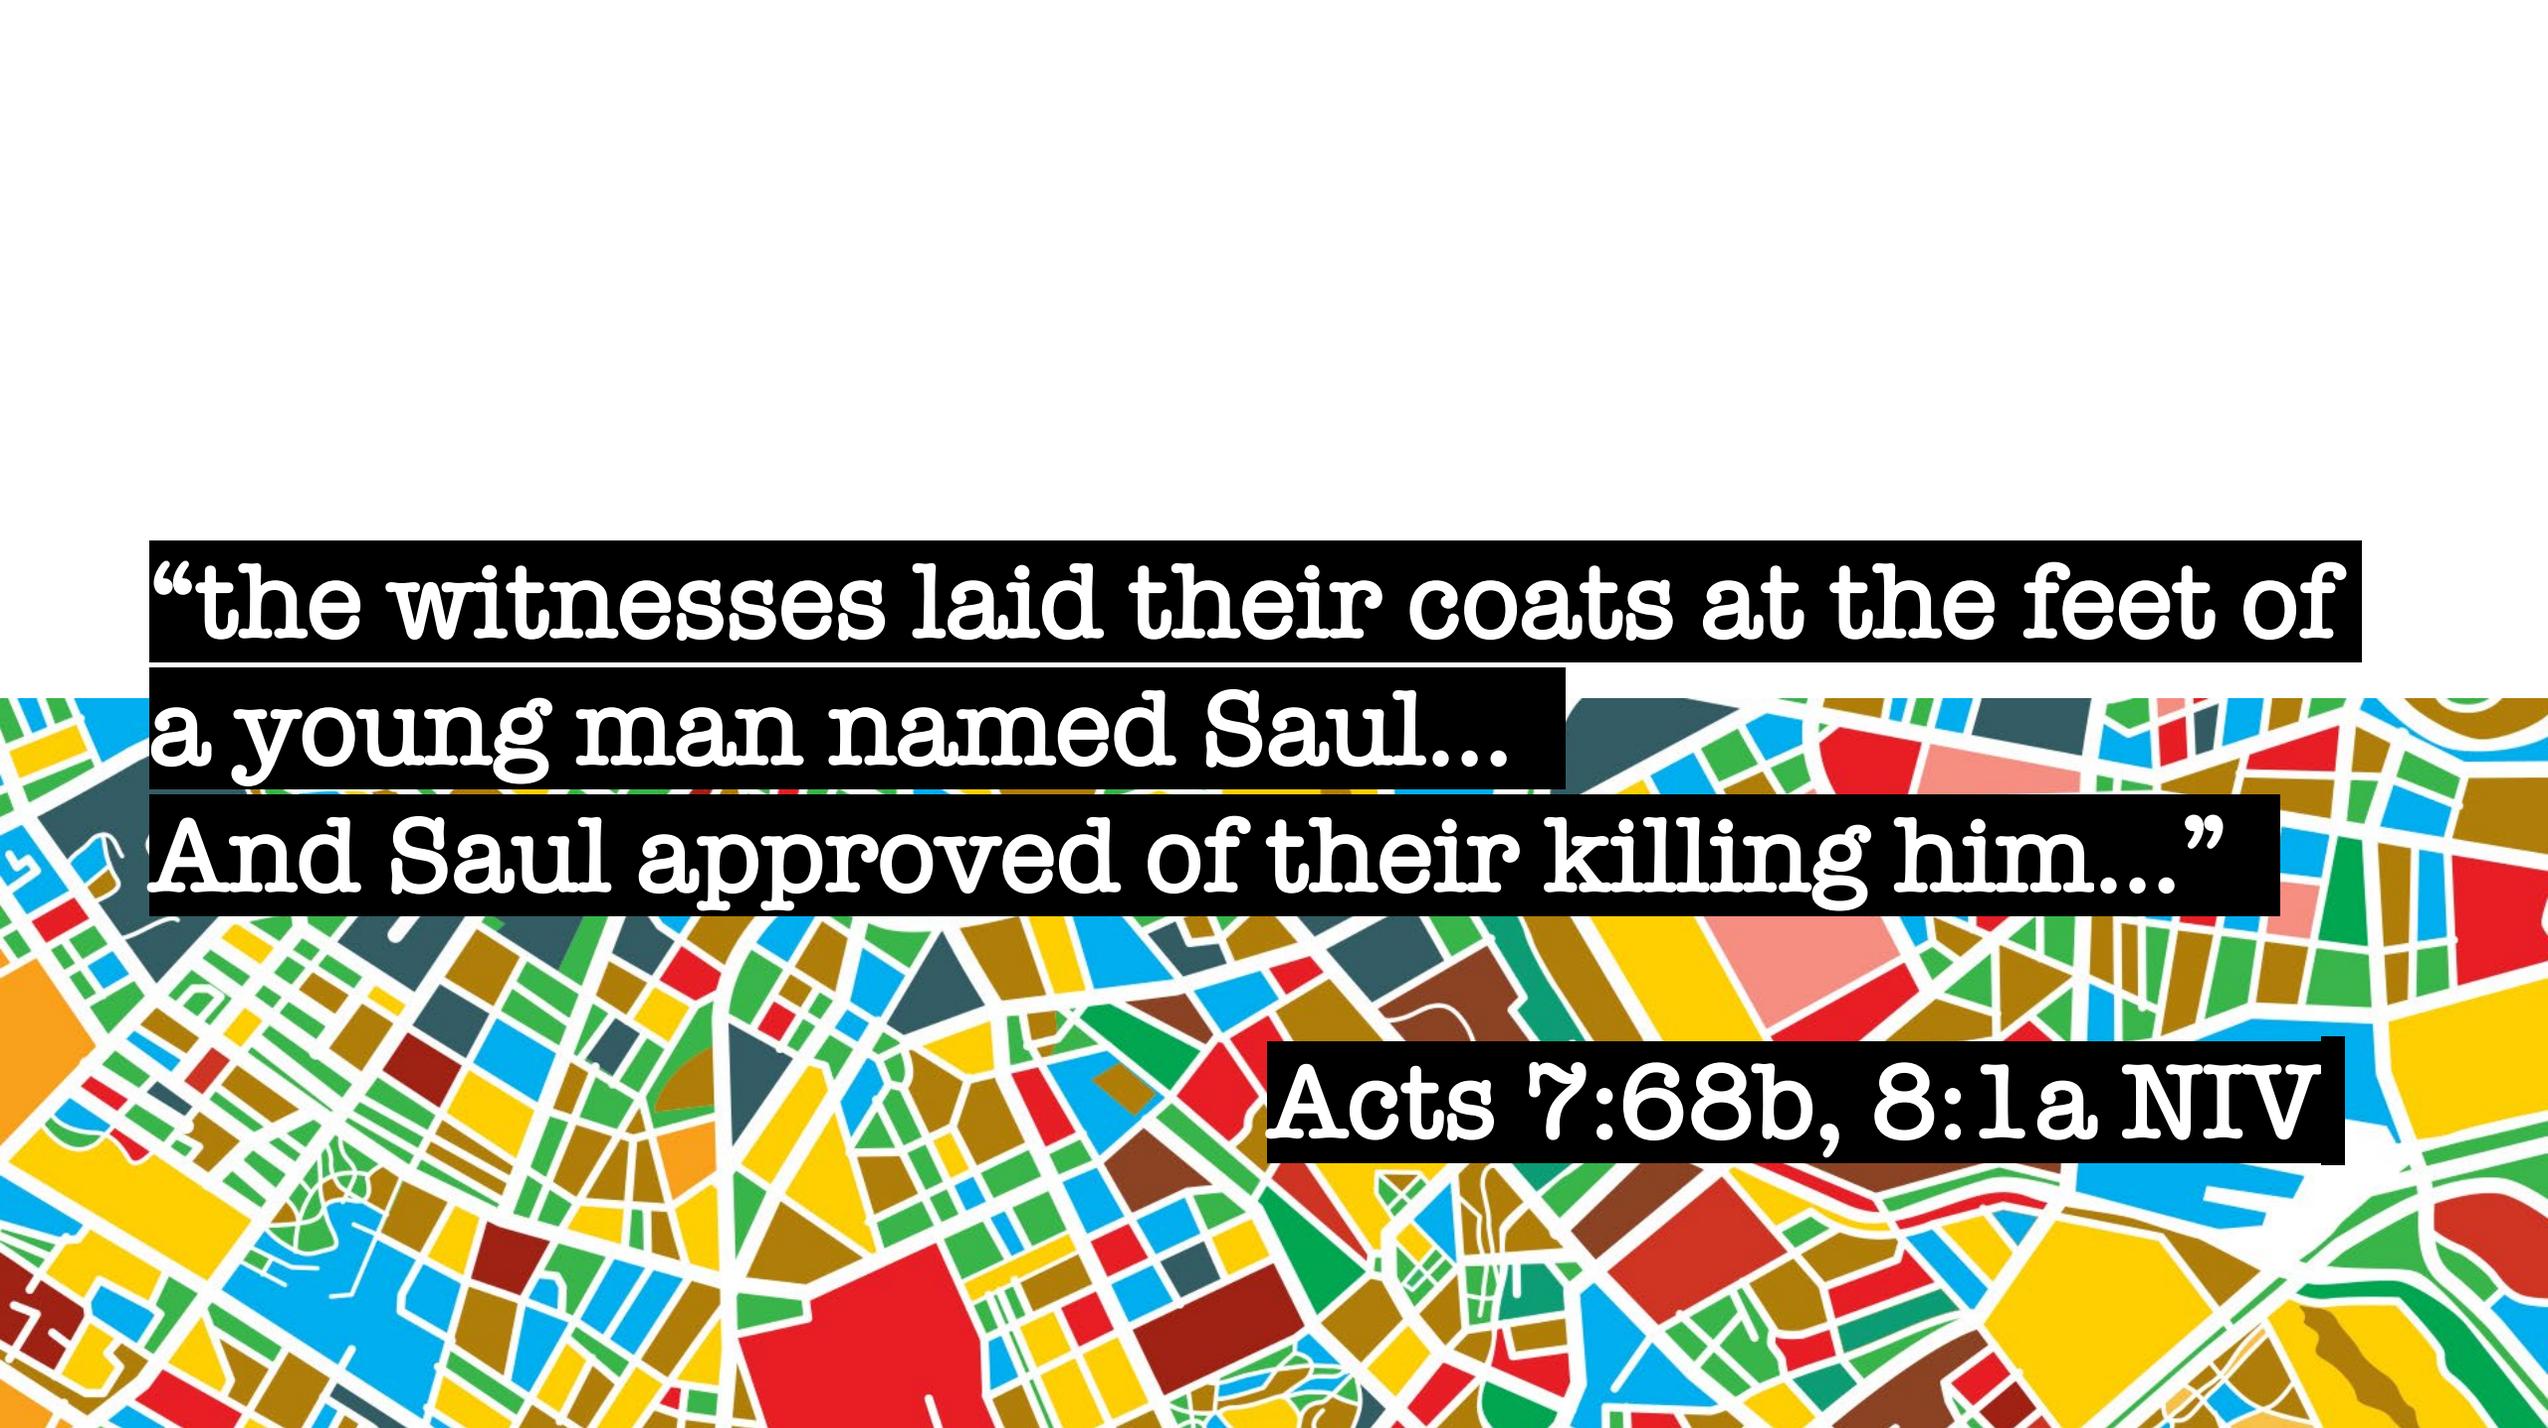

your perspective.

a young man named Saul...
And Saul approved of their killing him...”

Acts 7:68b, 8:1a NIV

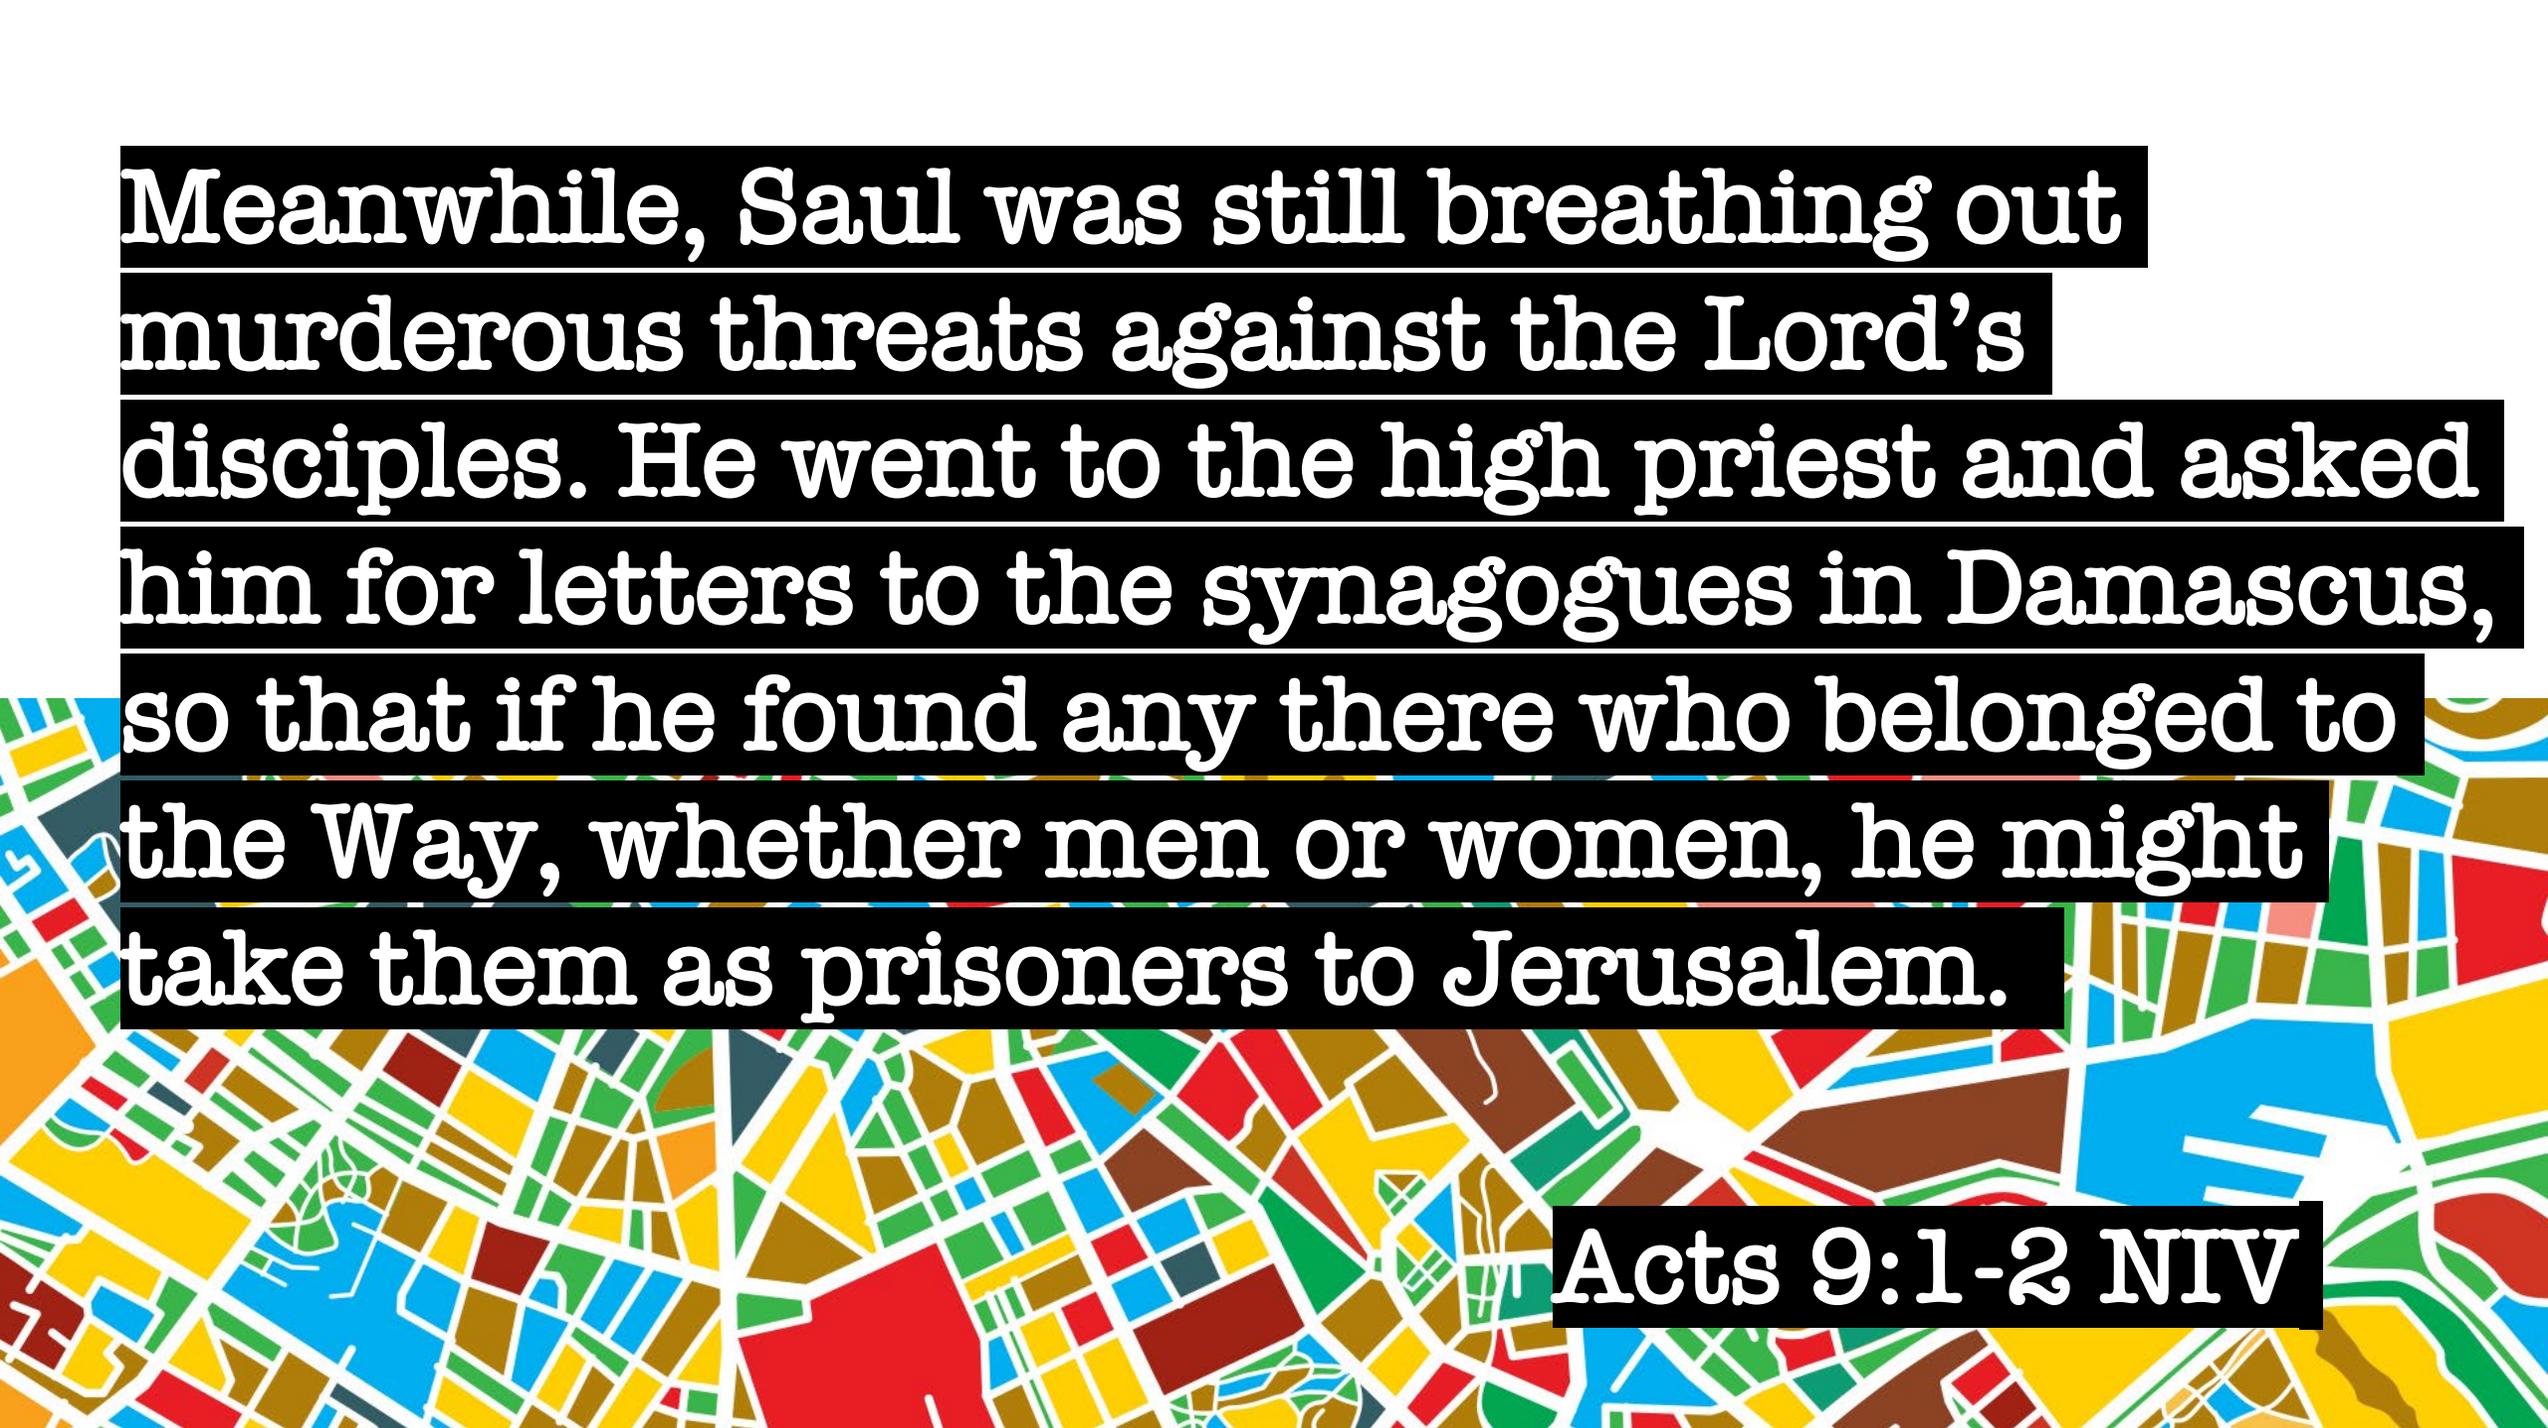

...Saul began to destroy the church.

Going from house to house, he dragged off both men and women and put them in prison.

Acts 8:3 NIV

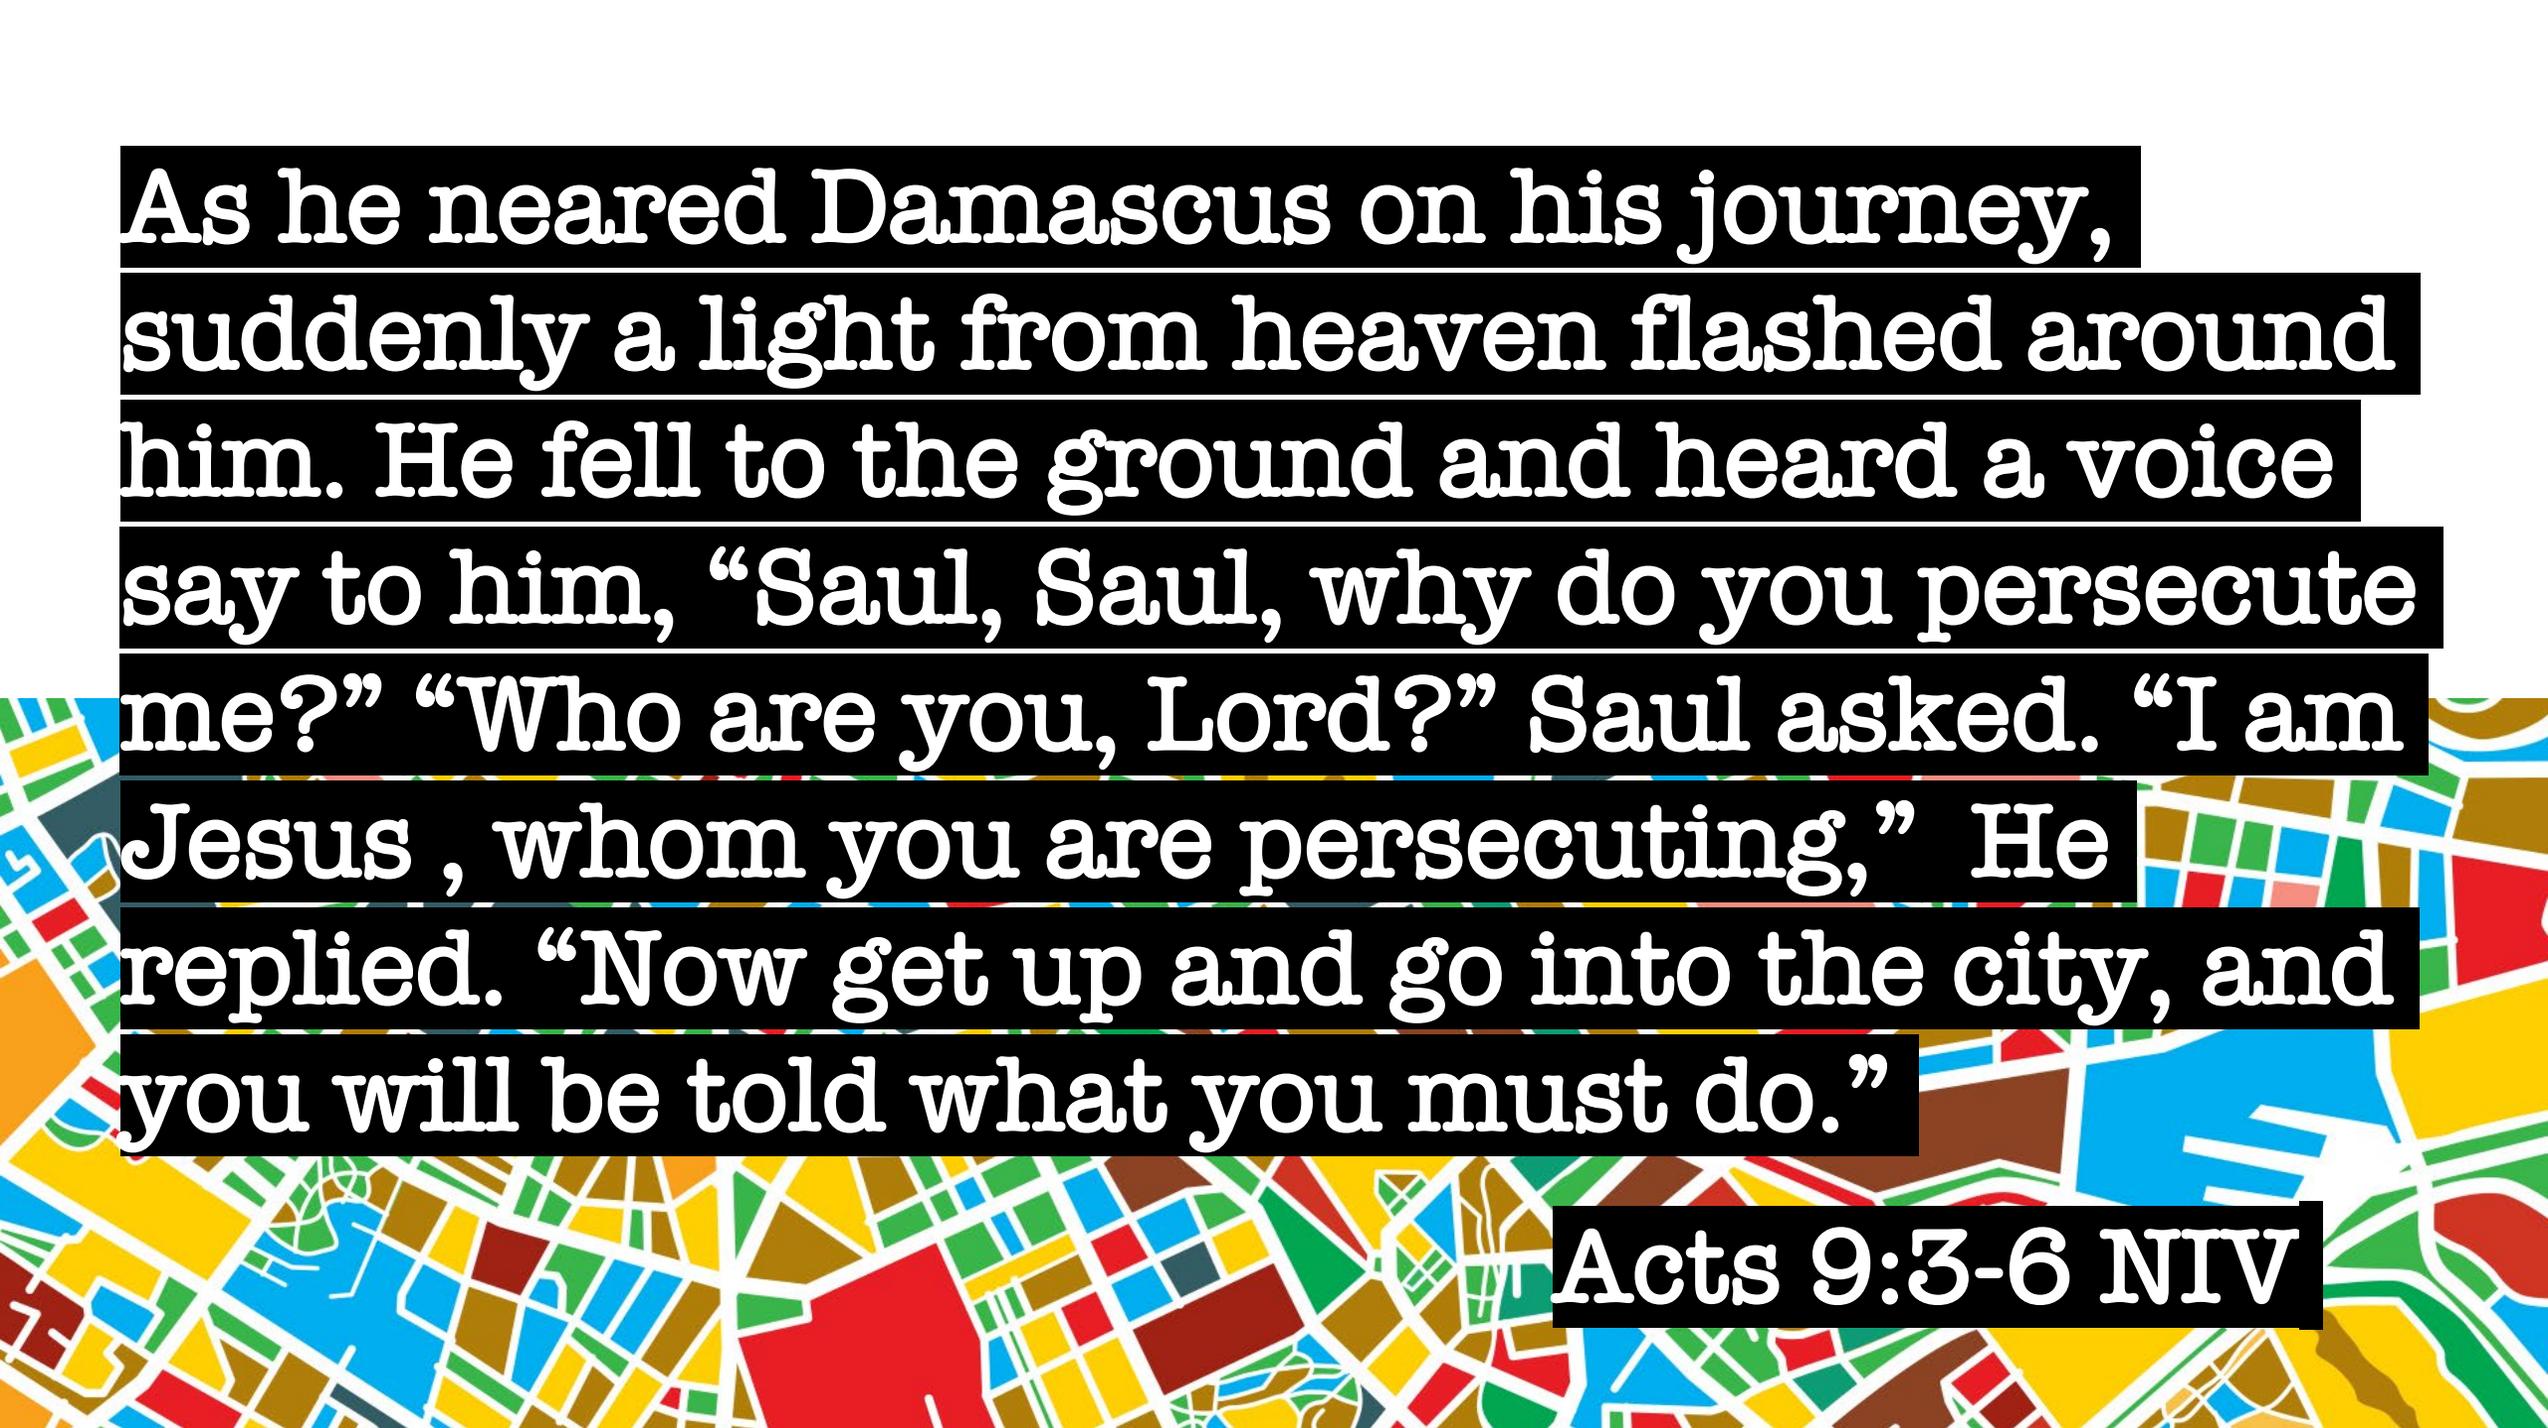

Meanwhile, Saul was still breathing out murderous threats against the Lord's disciples. He went to the high priest and asked him for letters to the synagogues in Damascus, so that if he found any there who belonged to the Way, whether men or women, he might take them as prisoners to Jerusalem.

Acts 9:1-2 NIV

Three Steps of Paul's Conversion

As he neared Damascus on his journey, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. He fell to the ground and heard a voice say to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?" "Who are you, Lord?" Saul asked. "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting," He replied. "Now get up and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do."

Acts 9:3-6 NIV

Step 1

You meet God.

Divine Visitation

Jesus

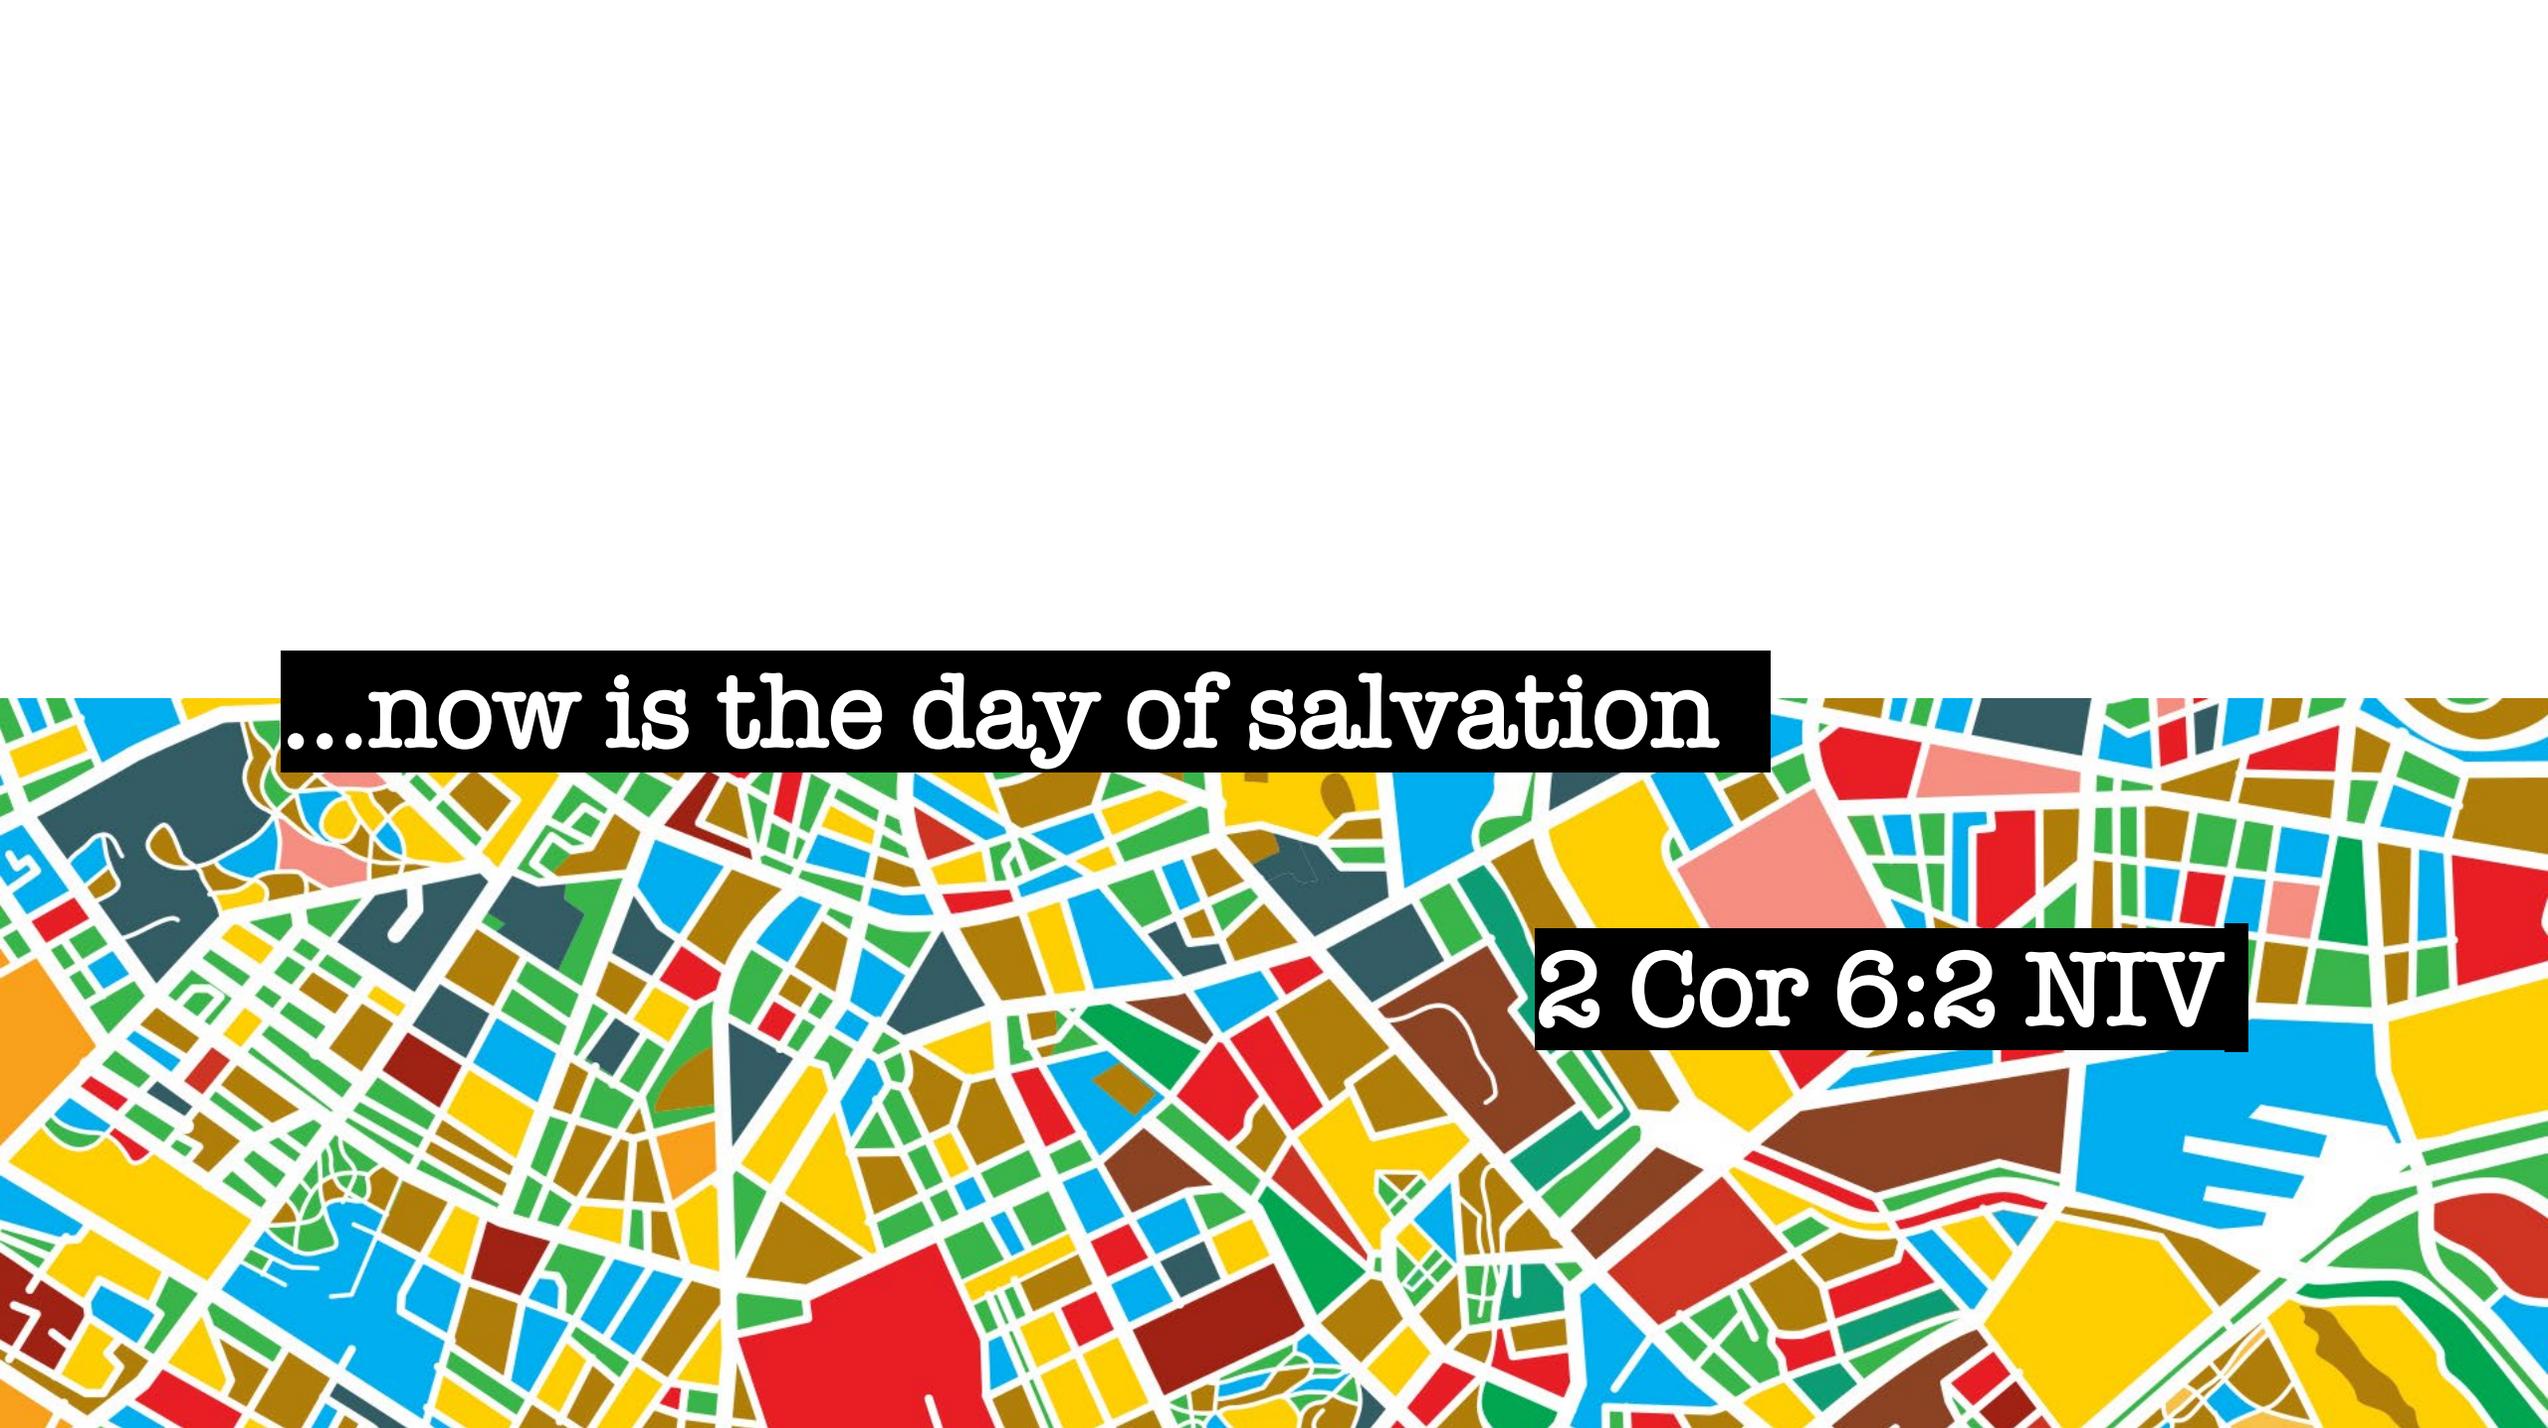

You need a encounter.

Conversion is pure mercy.

Conversion is meeting God and allowing Him to change you.

...now is the day of salvation

2 Cor 6:2 NIV

“He fell to the ground...”

Acts 9:4 NIV

humility = humus

For three days he was blind...

Acts 9:9 NIV

His body was manifesting
the reality of his soul.

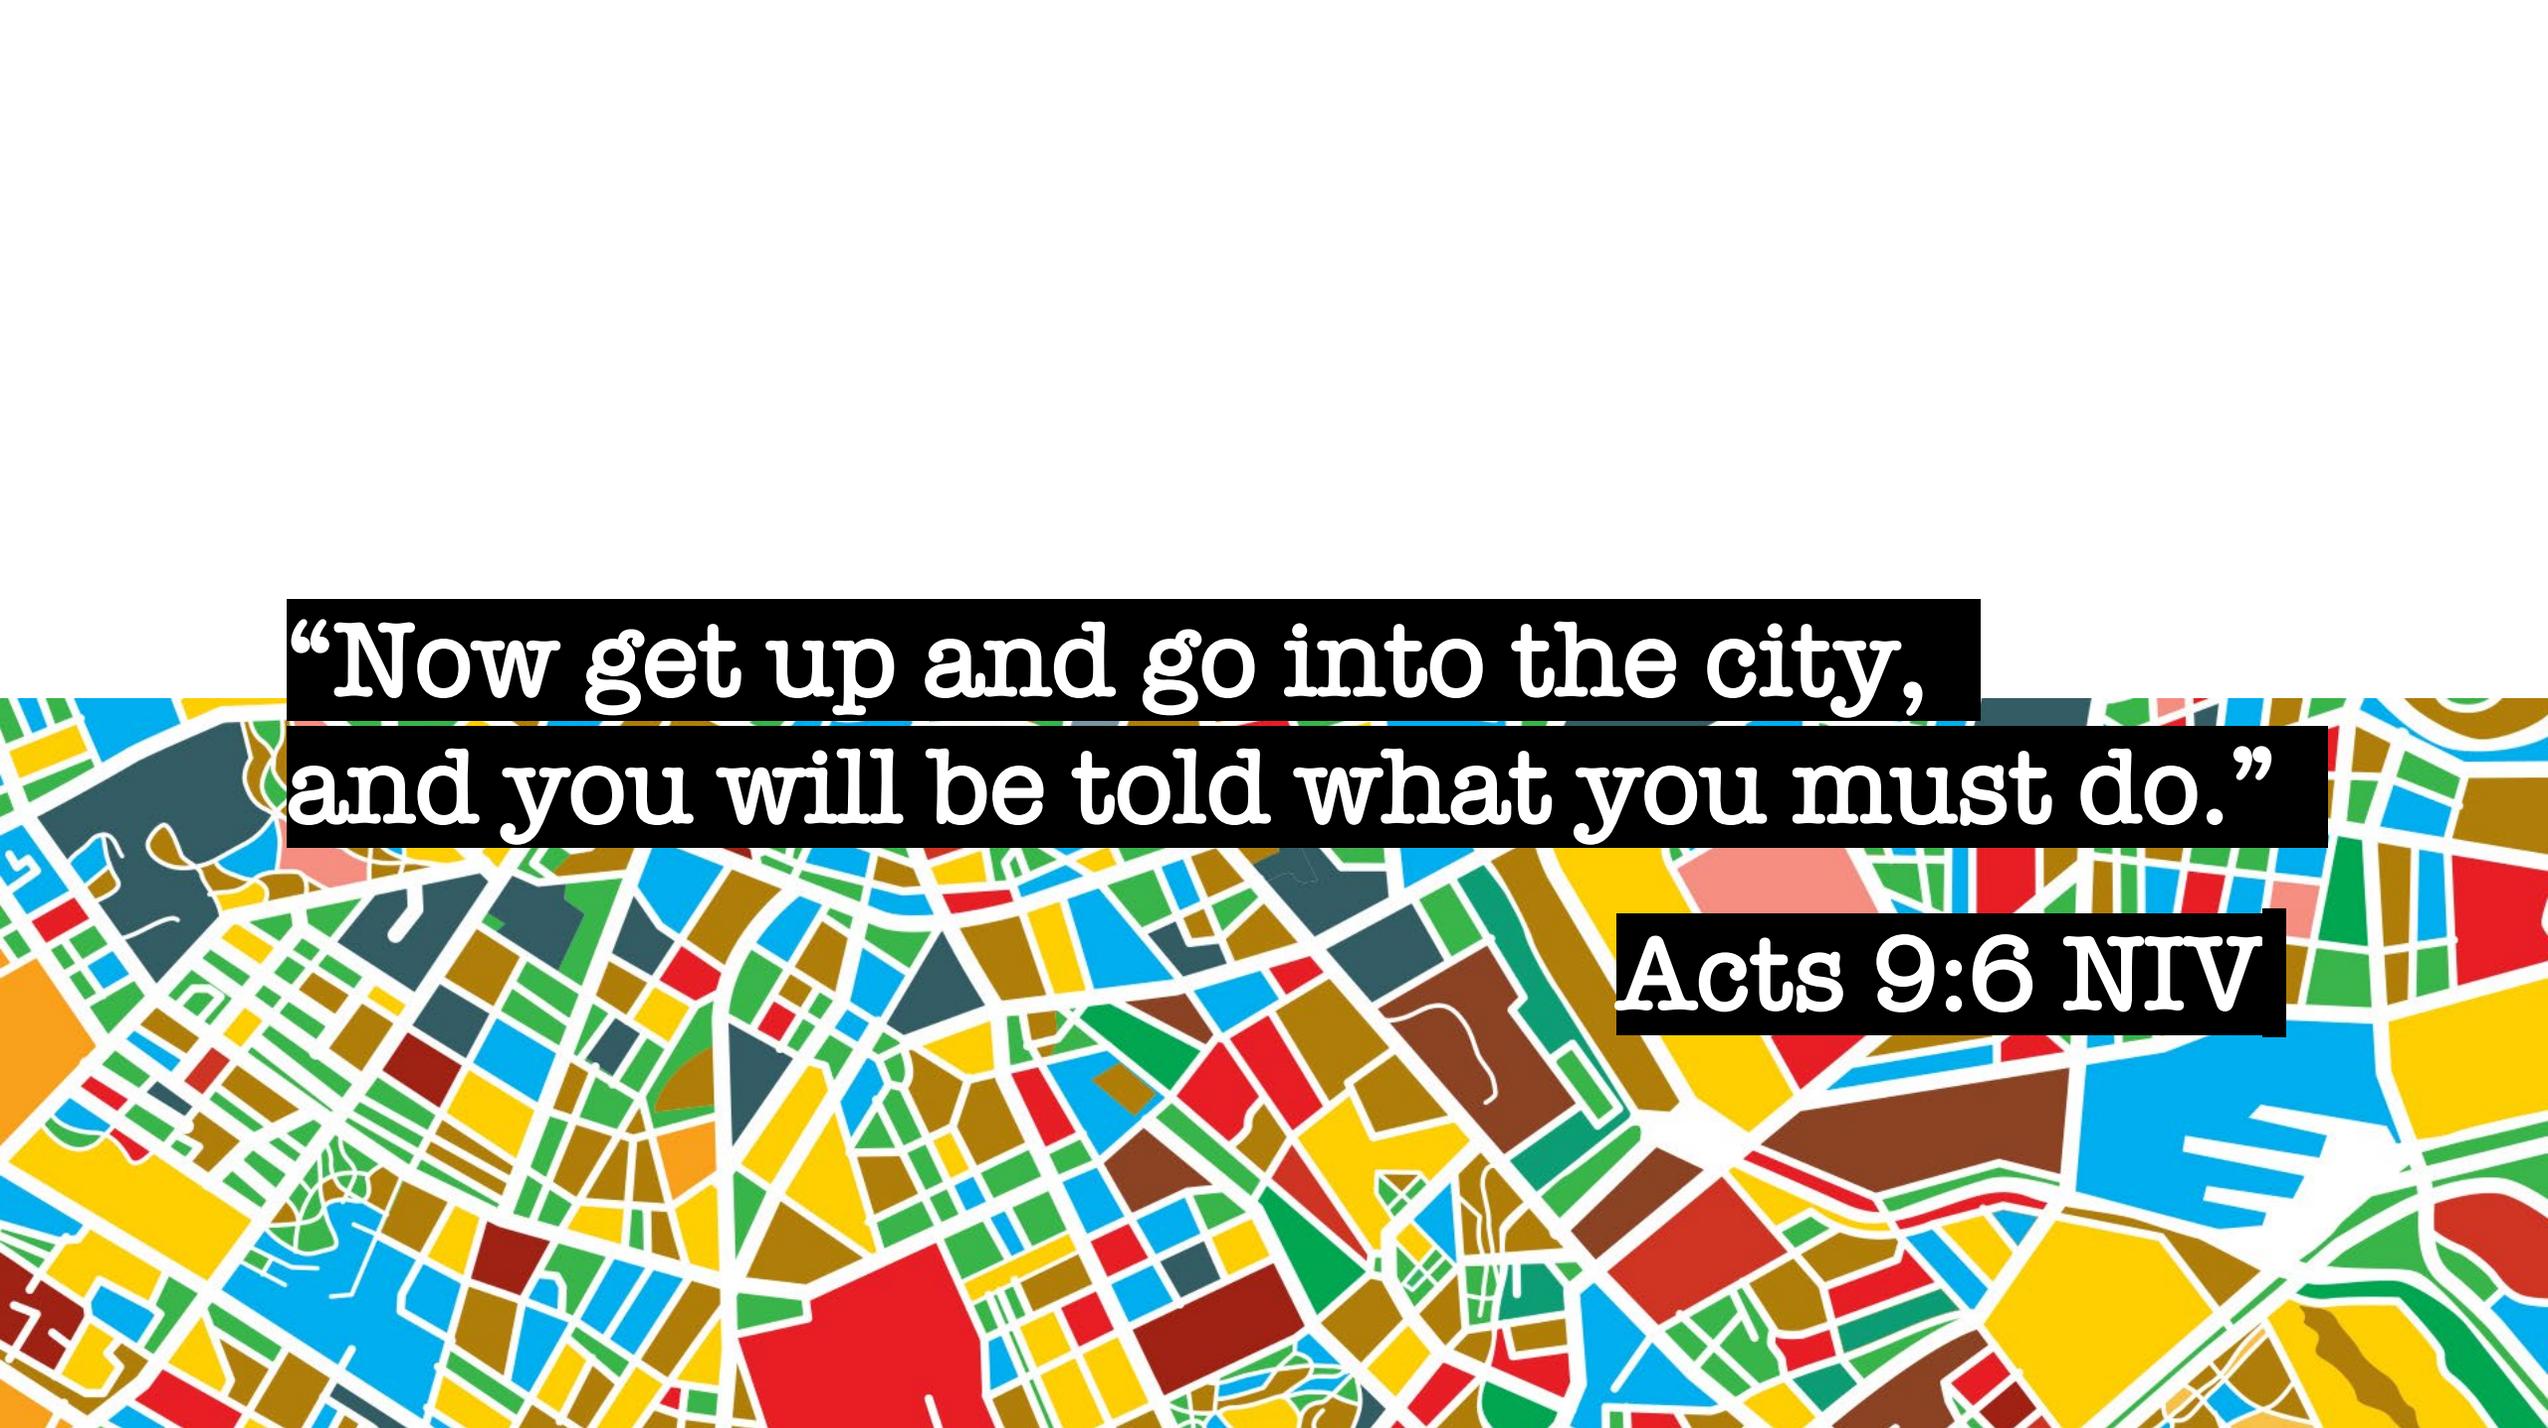

Get from God
a new set of eyes.
Get a God-
perspective.

Step 3

You follow God.

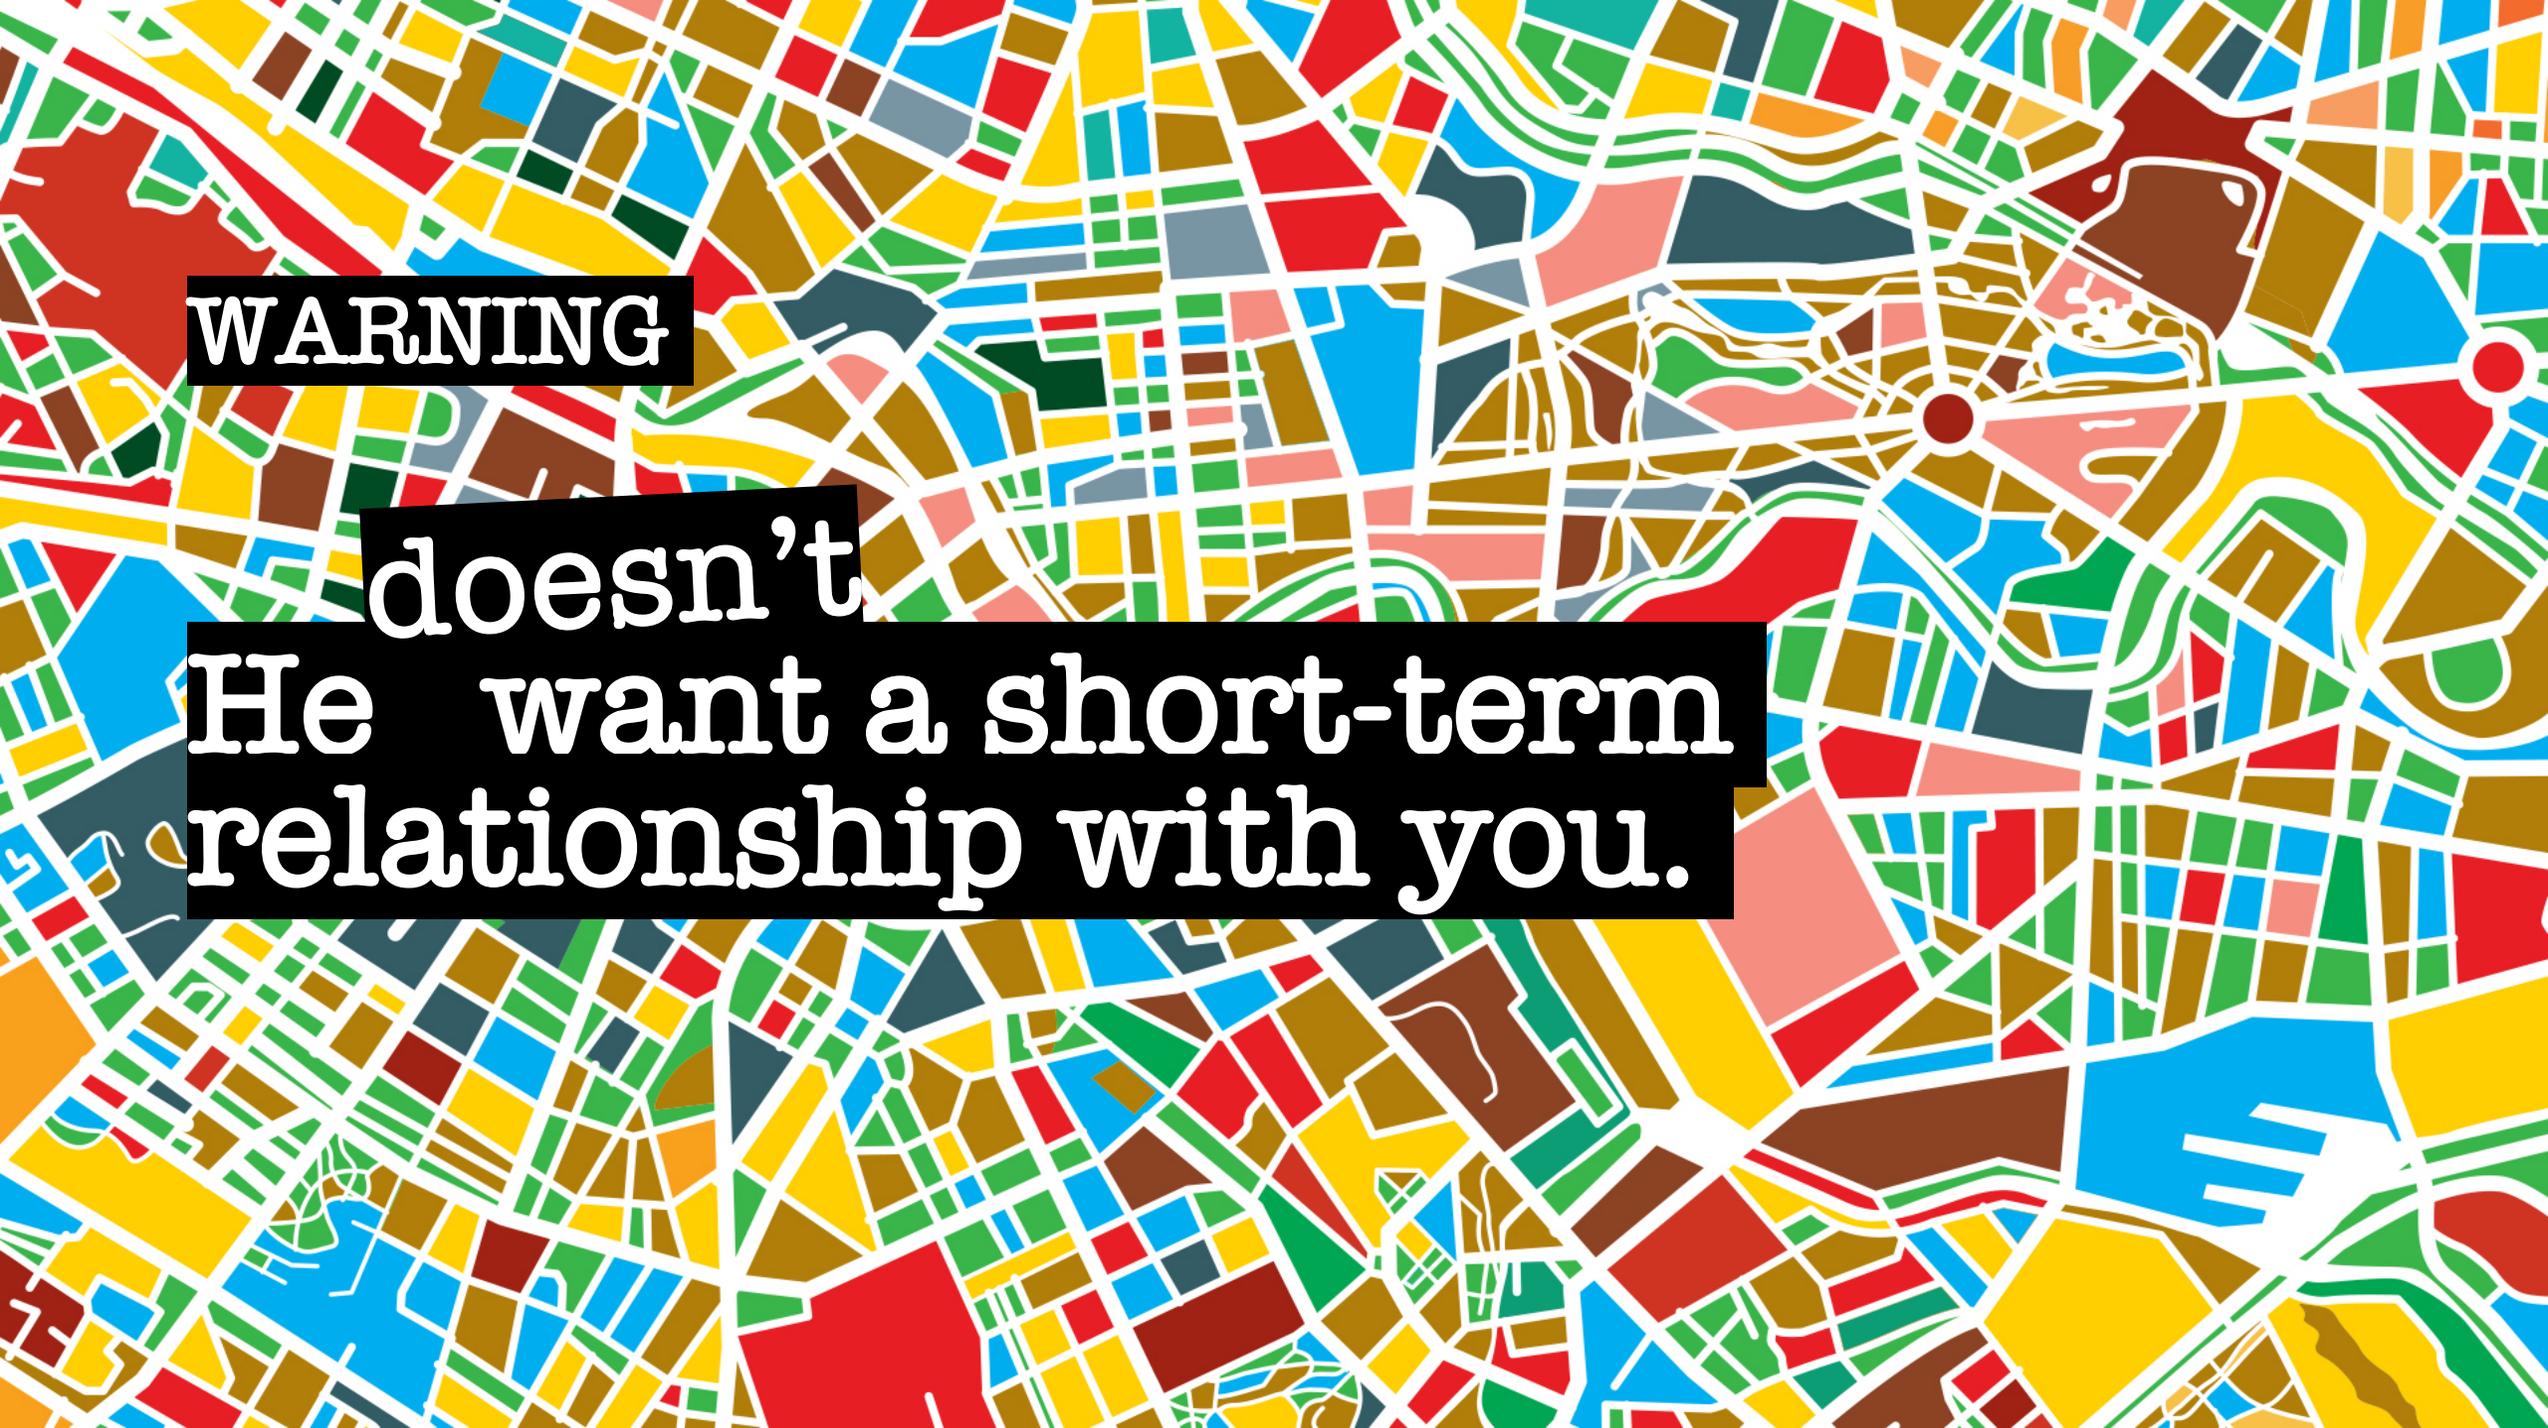

Pride says,
“I obey no one.”

“Now get up and go into the city,
and you will be told what you must do.”

Acts 9:6 NIV
